Questioning Empowerment:

Questioning Empowerment Jo Rowlands, 1997-01-01 Focusing on the term empowerment this book examines the various meanings given to the concept of empowerment and the many ways power can be expressed in personal relationships and in wider social interactions Questioning Empowerment Jo Rowlands, 1997 Exploring women's empowerment using a mixed methods approach Doss, Cheryl, Rubin, Deborah, 2021-07-19 Interest in the meaning and measurement of women's empowerment has become a stated goal of many programs in international development This paper explores a collaborative process of studying women's empowerment in agricultural research for development using both quantitative and qualitative methods It draws on three bodies of research around empowerment growing interest in qualitative methods and measurement research especially the conceptualization and adaptations of the Women's Empowerment in Agriculture Index Employing mixed methods over more than a decade of cooperation among researchers from the Global South and the Global North has challenged the methods and findings of each approach The work has led to new insights about gender differences in what empowerment means to women and to men the importance of context interrelationships among dimensions of empowerment and the need for greater precision in terms and measures particularly around decision making asset ownership and time use Such collaborative research benefits from a long timeframe to build trust and shared understandings across disciplines The paper concludes with suggestions for the next phase of research Feminisms, Empowerment and Development Jenny Edwards, Andrea Cornwall, 2014-03-13 The economic and political empowerment of women continues to be a central focus for development agencies worldwide access to medical care education and employment as well as women's reproductive rights remain key factors effecting women's autonomy Feminisms, Empowerment and Development explores what women are doing to change their own personal circumstances whilst providing an in depth analysis of collective action and institutionalized mechanisms aimed at changing structural relations Drawing on unique original research and approaching empowerment as a complex process of negotiation rather than a linear sequence of inputs and outcomes this crucial collection highlights the difficulty of creating common agendas for the advancement of women's power and rights and argues for a more nuanced context based approach to development theory and practice An indispensable text for anyone interested in gender and development this book shows that policies and approaches to development that view women as instrumental to other objectives will never promote women's empowerment as they fail to address the structures by which gender inequality is perpetuated over time Empowerment and Autonomy of Women Godrick Efraim Lyimo, 2016-06-10 The emancipation and empowerment of women has been a worldwide phenomenon of concern to many countries and organizations within the twentieth and twenty first centuries Although Tanzania as a country and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania ELCT Northern Diocese as an institution have embraced the idea of gender equality most women in Tanzania have yet to experience this in full This book is therefore based upon an understanding of the church as participating in God's mission which is rooted in a context of equality and as such stands in a better position to empower women to overcome some of the patriarchal practices that have put them on the margin of attaining full humanity. Therefore the book examines how Ushirika wa Neema Deaconess Centre contributes to the empowerment of women in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania ELCT Northern Diocese and fosters gender awareness in the church and the entire community. Ushirika wa Neema Deaconess Centre provides women with opportunities such as the means for independent income for education for professional training and for learning life skills. These opportunities change women's self-esteem as well as raise their self-confidence and respect in the church and community.

97524 67 0 Reaching for the Sky: Empowering Girls Through Education Urvashi Sahni, 2017-09-12 Transforming the Lives of Impoverished Girls in Patriarchal Societies Since 2003 a privately funded high school in India has provided desperately needed education for girls from impoverished families in Lucknow the capital and largest city in Uttar Pradesh Urvashi Sahni the founder of Prerna Girls School has written a compelling narrative of how this modest school in northeast India has changed the lives of more than 5 000 girls and their families Most important it is through the perspectives of the girls themselves rather than through a remote academic viewpoint that Prerna s success unfolds The book focuses on the importance of education in bringing about gender equality in a patriarchal society It shows how girls learn to be equal and autonomous persons in school as part of their official curriculum and how they use this learning to transform their lives and those of their families The book s central argument is that education can be truly transformative if it addresses the everyday reality of girls lives and responds to their special needs and challenges with respect and care The example of just one relatively small school in one corner of India the message and the stories it tells will inspire anyone concerned about the necessity of girls education especially in developing countries The lives of the girls at Prerna Girls School are largely representative of those of millions living in poor regions in countries where patriarchal structures and norms prevail

Participatory Development in Kenya Dr Robert Craig Strathdee, Ms Josephine Syokau Mwanzia, 2012-11-28

Participatory Development PDev has been embraced by Third World governments and international organizations such as the World Bank as a means to reduce poverty and empower disadvantaged communities The emphasis on creating partnerships and using participatory and people centred approaches has obvious political appeal yet there is evidence that in practice interventions designed to increase PDev and reduce poverty have yet to have the desired empowerment transformation and sustainability effect Using an in depth study of the Basic Education Improvement Project BEIP implemented by the Government of Kenya the authors of this book critically assess the fit between policy practice and theory of PDev to shed light on theoretical debates that are on going in development Women's Empowerment and Global Health Shari Dworkin, Monica Gandhi, Paige Passano, 2017 What is women s empowerment and how and why does it matter for women s health Despite the rise of a human rights based approach to women s health and increasing awareness of the synergies between women s health and empowerment a lack of consensus remains as to how to measure empowerment and successfully intervene in ways that improve health Women s Empowerment and Global Health provides thirteen detailed multidisciplinary case studies from across the globe and through the course of a woman s life to show how science and advocacy can be creatively merged to enhance the agency and status of women Accompanying short videos provide background about programs on the ground in India the United States Mexico Nicaragua Zimbabwe and South Africa Women s Empowerment and Global Health explores the promises and limits of programmatic scientific and rights based work in real world settings and provides the next generation of researchers and practitioners as well as students in global and public health sociology anthropology women s studies law business and medicine with cutting edge and inspirational examples of programs that point the way toward achieving women s equality and fulfilling the right to health Provided by publisher

Women and Fairness Eva Lambertsson Björk, Jutta Eschenbach, Johanna M. Wagner, 2021-05-07 This collection brings together scholars from various disciplines to ask fundamental questions concerning how women handle the manifold impediments placed before them as they simply attempt to live full human lives. The collection explores narratives of women real and fictional who fight against these barriers, who succumb to them, who remain unaware of them, or choose to ignore them. It explores the ways we read women in cultural production and how women are read in society. We assert the obstacles constructed into the very fabric of societies against fifty percent of the population are unfair, be they hindrances for women to attain their goals, encumbrances that limit women's speech and societal participation, communal and artistic, or hindrances that prohibit specific behaviors and images of women.

Critical Inclusive Tourism Catheryn Khoo, Prachi Thakur, Paolo Mura, Jess Sanggeyong Je, Mona Yang, 2024-09-06 This groundbreaking book addresses the longstanding lack of consensus surrounding the approach to marginalization in tourism. The chapters identify critical components and question the legitimacy of who qualifies as marginalized. Crucially, the book formulates effective solutions to address marginalization within the tourism context. While previous studies in tourism and social sciences have presented diverse conceptualizations and explanations of marginalization, the chapters in this book meticulously scrutinize their contextualization in constructing structural marginalization within the tourism industry. By doing so, the book offers a comprehensive understanding of how marginalisation manifests in the complex dynamics within the tourism sector. The chapters unravel the multifaceted dimensions of marginalization, providing a nuanced and informed perspective that contributes significantly to the ongoing discourse on inclusivity and equity within tourism knowledge. This book will be useful to tourism practitioners, academics, students, researchers, and policymakers. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Recreation Research.
