Parental Authority Matthew Tapie, 2025 The Mortara case refers to Pope Pius IX s 1858 removal of a six year old Jewish boy Edgardo Mortara from his parents in Bologna Italy Six years after the child was born it was reported that the family s Christian housekeeper had baptized him after he had fallen ill as an infant and was allegedly in danger of death Since canon law and civil law stipulated that a baptized child must be raised Catholic Pius IX used his power as head of the Papal States to remove Edgardo from his family so he could receive a Christian education Scholars on both sides of the contemporary debate over Pius IX s decision to remove the child frequently appeal to the teaching of Thomas Aquinas to make their arguments However the discussion has overlooked an important fact the question of how Aquinas s teaching applied to the case was at the center of the dispute between the Mortara family and Pius IX in 1858. Indeed the Mortara family and the Roman Jewish community submitted to the Vatican a two part document Pro memoria and Syllabus that appealed to Aquinas to argue for the return of the child. However the Vatican's reply Brevi cenni denied the request and cited Aquinas's teaching to argue that Edgardo's baptism was valid and that he therefore belonged to the Church. Who had the correct interpretation of Aquinas's thought? And how does this answer impact Catholic theology and Catholic Jewish relations today? The Mortara Case and Thomas Aquinas's Defense of Jewish Parental Authority assesses the claims of both sides of the contemporary debate through an analysis of Aquinas's teaching as it is interpreted in the original Italian and Latin documents from the 1858 case which are housed in the Vatican Apostolic Archives. The complete text of these documents are reproduced here with facing English translations for the first time. Tapie demonstrates that for Aquinas Jewish parental authority is an order of the natural law which Aquinas likened to a spiritualis uterus spiritual womb. Since Jewish parental authority is an order of the natural law it cannot be opposed to God's grace. The Mortara Case and Thomas Aquinas's Defense of Jewish Parental Authority is the first book length study to examine Aquinas's teaching against baptism of Jewish children invitis parentibus against the will of parents in its thirteenth century context. The book also treats the reception history of Aquinas's thought among his Dominican defenders who advanced his position from the late thirteenth century into the middle of the sixteenth century. Tapie's study concludes by examining the current Code of Canon Law on infant baptism for children of non Catholic parents as well as its relation to the Second Vatican Council's teaching on religious freedom and the Jewish people.

Matthew 14-28, Volume 33B Donald A. Hagner, 2018-04-24. The Word Biblical Commentary delivers the best in biblical scholarship from the leading scholars of our day who share a commitment to Scripture as divine revelation. This series emphasizes a thorough analysis of textual, linguistic, structural, and theological evidence. The result is judicious and balanced insight into the meanings of the text in the framework of biblical theology. These widely acclaimed commentaries serve as exceptional resources for the professional theologian and instructor, the seminary or university student, the working minister, and everyone concerned with building theological understanding from a solid base of biblical scholarship. Overview of Commentary Organization. Introduction covers issues pertaining to the whole book including context, date, authorship, composition, interpretive issues, purpose, and theology. Each section of the commentary includes Pericope Bibliography, a helpful resource containing the most important works that pertain to each particular pericope. Translation, the author's own translation of the biblical text reflecting the end result of exegesis and attending to Hebrew and Greek idiomatic usage of words, phrases, and tenses yet in reasonably good English. Notes, the author's notes to the translation that address any textual variants, grammatical forms, syntactical constructions, basic meanings of words, and problems of translation. Form/Structure, Setting, a discussion of redaction, genre, sources, and tradition as they concern the origin of the pericope, its canonical form, and its relation to the biblical and extra-biblical contexts in order to illuminate the structure and character of the pericope.

Rhetorical or compositional features important to understanding the passage are also introduced here. Comment verse by verse interpretation of the text and dialogue with other interpreters engaging with current opinion and scholarly research. Explanation brings together all the results of the discussion in previous sections to expose the meaning and intention of the text at several levels: 1 within the context of the book itself; 2 its meaning in the OT or NT; 3 its place in the entire canon; 4 theological relevance to broader OT or NT issues. General Bibliography occurring at the end of each volume; this extensive bibliography contains all sources used anywhere in the commentary.

In Spirit and Truth Benny Thettayil, 2007. In the context of his conversation with the Samaritan woman, the Johannine Jesus says the true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth. 4:23. In this monograph Benny Thettayil undertakes a detailed exegetical study of the fourth evangelist's understanding of worship in Spirit and truth. Part One is devoted to a detailed exegetical analysis of John 4:19-26, focusing on the relationship between Jews and Samaritans, the meaning of pneuma and aletheia, as well as the question whether Jesus reveals himself as the Messiah to the Samaritan woman. In Part Two, Thettayil offers an extensive study of the replacement theme in the Fourth Gospel. He studies this issue in connection with the Johannine community and with the presentation of Jesus as the fulfilment of the temple. In his final chapter, Thettayil enters into the difficult field of Johannine Replacement Theology, taking up the challenge of confronting the theological implications of the way the fourth evangelist presents Judaism.

Jewish Responses to Early Christians Claudia Setzer, 1994-11-01. What were Jews saying and doing about the followers of Jesus in the first two centuries? In this provocative and comprehensive study, Claudia Setzer argues persuasively that Jews saw the early followers of Jesus as Jews for some time after the Christians viewed themselves as separate from the larger Jewish communities. This book provides historical context and nuanced exegesis of texts that continue to be trouble spots in Jewish-Christian relations. It illuminates the diverse strands of early anti-Judaism while providing the reader with some surprises.

40 Questions About the Great Commission Daniel L. Akin, George G. Robinson, Benjamin L. Merkle, 2020-01-28. Jesus' Great Commission is one of the key pillars of the church's evangelistic work and has been the guiding principle for missionaries throughout church history. In 40 Questions about the Great Commission, scholars Daniel Akin, Benjamin Merkle, and George Robinson unpack the meaning, history, theology, and practical applications of Jesus' command to go and make disciples. Ideal for personal or group study, this volume will reignite your passion for evangelism while answering key questions like: Where do we stand in relation to fulfilling the Great Commission? How do baptism and teaching relate to the Great Commission? What is the meaning of "I am with you always to the end of the age"? How does the Old Testament relate to the Great Commission? What is the special contribution of each Gospel's version of the Great Commission? What is the responsibility of the local church to the Great Commission? What are some mobilization resources that can help churches and individuals to become Great Commission focused? Other highlights include an overview of some of the great evangelists and missionaries in church history and a collection of notable quotations on the Great Commission ideal for teaching and preaching 40 Questions About the Great Commission is an indispensable text for any pastor professor or student who cares about the Christian mission In it a biblical scholar missiologist and seminary president join forces to answer every question you've ever asked or never asked about our Lord's parting commission to his disciples Substantive lucid and compelling Bruce Ashford Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary The church has one job It is called the Great Commission Every Christian soldier should know the who the what the why and the where of the marching orders left by our Lord and Commander in Chief and this book does just that in an engaging and encouraging way Read it and then get on with it James Merritt The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary This book is a succinct and at the same time wide ranging exposition of the commission of Jesus given to the disciples and thus to the church to proclaim the gospel far and wide The authors elucidate the meaning of key passages in Scripture and thus present the geographical scope the theological content and important historical parameters of the mission of the church This book deserves to be read by every Christian believer committed to the glory of God in all the world and to the proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ Eckhard J Schnabel Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary

The Gospel of Tatian Matthew R. Crawford, Nicholas J. Zola, 2019-07-11 This volume combines some of the leading voices on the composition and collection of early Christian gospels in order to analyze Tatian's Diatessaron The rapid rise and sudden suppression of the Diatessaron has raised numerous questions about the nature and intent of this second century composition It has been claimed as both a vindication of the fourfold gospel's early canonical status and as an argument for the canon's ongoing fluidity it has been touted as both a premiere witness to the earliest recoverable gospel text and as an early corrupting influence on that text Collectively these essays provide the greatest advance in Diatessaronic scholarship in a quarter of a century The contributors explore numerous questions did Tatian intend to supplement or supplant the fourfold gospel How many were his sources and how free was he with their text How do we identify a Diatessaronic witness Is it legitimate to use Tatian's Diatessaron as a source in New Testament textual criticism Is a reconstruction of the Diatessaron still possible These queries in turn contribute to the question of what the Diatessaron signifies with respect to the broader context of gospel writing and what this can tell us about how the writing rewriting and reception of gospel material functioned in the first and second centuries and beyond

The Earliest Christian Mission to "all Nations" in the Light of Matthew's Gospel James LaGrand, 1999 This original work of scholarship clarifies how in light of Matthew's Gospel the first Christians understood and claimed Israel's messianic mission to people of every ethnic group immediately after Jesus' death and resurrection

Smalley,2020-11-16 The aim of systematic theology is to engage not only the head but also the heart and hands Only recently has the church compartmentalized these aspects of life separating the academic discipline of theology from the spiritual disciplines of faith and obedience This multivolume work brings together rigorous historical and theological scholarship with spiritual disciplines and practical insights characterized by a simple accessible comprehensive Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley shift from the doctrine of God theology proper to the doctrine of humanity anthropology and the doctrine of Christ Christology This extensive reformed theology explores the Bible s teaching about who we are and why we were created as well as who Jesus is and why his divinity is essential to the Christian faith

Redescribing Christian Origins Ronald Dean Cameron,Merrill P. Miller,2004 These essays challenge the traditional picture of Christian origins Making use of social anthropology they move away from traditional assumptions about the foundations of Christianity to propose that its historical beginnings are best understood as reflexive social experiments

Matthew and the Mishnah Akiva Cohen,2016-06-10 Akiva Cohen investigates the general research question how do the authors of religious texts reconstruct their community identity and ethos in the absence of their central cult His particular socio historical focus of this more general question is how do the respective authors of the Gospel according to Matthew and the editor s of the Mishnah redefine their group identities following the destruction of the Second Temple Cohen further examines how after the Destruction both the Matthean and the Mishnaic communities found and articulated their renewed community bearings and a new sense of vision through each of their respective author redactor s foundational texts The context of this study is thus that of an inner Jewish phenomenon two Jewish groups seeking to re establish their community identity and ethos without the physical temple that had been the cultic center of their cosmos Feasting on the
