Exploring the Professional Identity of Management Consultants Anthony F. Buono, Léon de Caluwé, Annemieke Stoppelenburg, 2013-03-01 The volume is based on the presentations and discussions from the Fifth European Conference on Management Consulting sponsored by the Management Consulting Division of the Academy of Management which took place June 2011 at Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam the Netherlands The conference theme Exploring the Professional Identity of Management Consultants attempted to capture the highly ambiguous social status of this young and emerging profession Management consulting does not have professional standards or accreditation criteria like those found in medicine or law there are low barriers to entry and a broad range of tasks are undertaken in the name of consulting As a result a crucial aspect of what constitutes such a loosely defined profession is the identity of its members The professional identity of management consultants is continuously developing through the interplay of how consultants are seen and valued by clients as well as in the larger society and how consultancy firms and consultants identify and position themselves This theme includes a variety of topics ranging from the interaction between consultants and their clients consultant rhetoric and self presentation and the plethora of books media and public discourse on consulting to human resource policies and practices knowledge development activities of consultancy firms career and life stories of consultants and consultancies and consulting associations accreditation bodies and education programs All of these factors contribute either directly or indirectly to identity construction in the field of management consulting Academic Advising Virginia N. Gordon, Wesley R. Habley, Thomas J. Grites, 2011-01-13 One of the challenges in higher education is helping students to achieve academic success while ensuring their personal and vocational needs are fulfilled In this updated edition more than thirty experts offer their knowledge in what has become the most comprehensive classic reference on academic advising They explore the critical aspects of academic advising and provide insights for full time advisors counselors and those who oversee student advising or have daily contact with advisors and students New chapters on advising administration and collaboration with other campus services A new section on perspectives on advising including those of CEOs CAOs chief academic officers and CSAOs chief student affairs officers More emphasis on two year colleges and the importance of research to the future of academic advising New case studies demonstrate how advising practices have been put to use

Fast Track to Differential Equations Albert Fässler, 2021-10-04 The second edition of this successful textbook includes a significantly extended chapter on Climate Change with an analysis of the CO₂ budget It also contains a completely new part on Epidemiology treating the SEIR model which describes the behavior and dynamics of epidemics In particular COVID 19 with actual data is discussed This compact introduction to ordinary differential equations and their applications is aimed at anyone who in their studies is confronted voluntarily or involuntarily with this versatile subject Numerous applications from physics technology biomathematics cosmology economy and optimization theory are given Abstract proofs and unnecessary formalism are avoided as far as possible The focus is on modelling ordinary differential equations of the first and second orders as well as their analytical and numerical solution methods in which the theory is dealt with briefly before moving on to application examples In addition program codes show exemplarily how even more challenging questions can be tackled and represented meaningfully with the help of a computer algebra system The first chapter deals with the necessary prior knowledge of integral and differential calculus 103 motivating exercises together with their solutions round off the work I am happy to see such a book It will serve as a support for many students professors and faculty Dr Alessio Figalli Professor at the ETH Z rich and Fields medalist 2018

The Rhetorical Career of Cesar

Chavez John C. Hammerback, Richard J. Jensen, 2003-04 Although born into one of the least powerful segments of American society C sar Ch vez led the farm labor movement to unprecedented heights His powerful effect on audiences is well known but award winning scholars John C Hammerback and Richard J Jensen offer the first explanation of how Ch vez achieved that effect Although other studies of Ch vez exist none has examined so thoroughly his rhetoric nor analyzed in depth such a large number of Ch vez s own texts scores of which have previously been unstudied Ch vez was an indefatigable speaker writer and non discursive communicator who developed a well thought out approach to his rhetorical discourse and placed his speaking and writing at the very center of his career By merging thought and character in his themes arguments and explanations and in his first and second personae Ch vez was able to identify with the character of his listeners That identification induced many audience members to support Ch vez s agenda for union activism The authors have developed a model to help explain Ch vez s startling transformation of some audiences and persuasion of others Hammerback and Jensen reveal that Ch vez s world view motivated him to work tirelessly and directed him to the particular rhetorical qualities and techniques that characterized his discourse The authors also demonstrate Ch vez s surprising effectiveness as a rhetor despite his soft spoken style uncharacteristic of most powerful orators
