Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1995-02      Russia in 1913 Wayne Dowler,2010-10-29 A pivotal year in the history of the Russian Empire 1913 marks the tercentennial celebration of the Romanov Dynasty the infamous anti Semitic Beilis Trial Russia s first celebration of International Women s Day the ministerial boycott of the Duma and the amnestying of numerous prisoners and political exiles along with many other important events A vibrant public sphere existed in Russia s last full year of peace prior to war and revolution During this time a host of voluntary associations a lively and relatively free press the rise of progressive municipal governments the growth of legal consciousness the advance of market relations and new concepts of property tenure in the countryside and the spread of literacy were transforming Russian society Russia in 1913 captures the complexity of the economy and society in the brief period between the revolution of 1905 and the outbreak of war in 1914 and shows how the widely accepted narrative about pre war late Imperial Russia has failed in significant ways While providing a unique synthesis of the historiography Dowler also uses reportage from two newspapers to create a fuller impression of the times This engaging and important study will appeal both to Russian studies scholars and serious readers of history      [The History of Nations: Burdick Jennie E. Film and Identity in Kazakhstan Rico Isaacs,2018-02-07 Cinema and nationalism are two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation the imagining of Central Asian nations Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country s

inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country's authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space The World Almanac and Book of Facts, 1994
