Russias Race For Asia:

Russia as an Aspiring Great Power in East Asia P. Rangsimaporn, 2009-08-27 Rangsimaporn argues that Russia aspires to become a great power and tries to achieve this through utilizing its position as a Eurasian country with vast territories in East Asia its economic assets primarily arms and energy and careful management of its role in a multipolar East Asia with a complex balance of power Race and Racism in Modern East Asia, 2012-11-01 Race and Racism in Modern East Asia juxtaposes Western racial constructions of East Asians with constructions of race and their outcomes in modern East Asia It is the first endeavor to explicitly and coherently link constructions of race and racism in both regions These constructions have not only played a decisive role in shaping the relations between the West and East Asia since the mid nineteenth century but also exert substantial influence on current relations and mutual images in both the East West nexus and East Asia Written by some of the field s leading authorities this groundbreaking 21 chapter volume offers an analysis of these constructions their evolution and their interrelations Russia's Race for Asi George Creel, 2011-08-01 The New Russia in the New Asia, Russia and Central Asia Shoshana Keller, 2020 This introduction to Central Asia and its relationship with Russia helps restore Central Asia to the general narrative of Russian and world history Russian Energy Strategy in the Asia-Pacific Elizabeth Buchanan, 2021-06-01 Given Australia s lack of energy security strategy it is not surprising that the country is void of institutional knowledge and know how of Russian foreign energy strategy The lucky country as it were relies entirely on sea lines of communication to the north to supply fuel and to export Australian coal and natural gas Australia has entered the 2020s as the world s largest liquefied natural gas LNG exporter however maintaining complacency in Canberra s current export activities will ultimately lead to a long term security crisis This book critically examines Russian energy strategy in the Asia Pacific with a view to determining the security implications for Australia Russia is important for global energy security chains because of its vast resource wealth and its geographical position a pivotal position to supply both the European and Asian markets Australia has no such luxury geographically constrained as an island continent it relies on the nearby Asia Pacific import market to demand our energy and to facilitate the delivery of our national oil supplies Understanding Russian foreign energy strategy in the region is crucial given the growing energy requirements in Australia s emerging Asia Pacific arena Institute of Pacific Relations United States. Cimbala,2020-02-03 This book analyzes the United States and Russia's nuclear arms control and deterrence relationships and how these countries must lead current and prospective efforts to support future nuclear arms control and nonproliferation The second nuclear age following the end of the Cold War and the demise of the Soviet Union poses new challenges with respect to nuclear strategic stability deterrence and nonproliferation The spread of nuclear weapons in Asia and the potential for new nuclear weapons states in the Middle East create new possible axes of conflict potentially stressful to the existing world order Other uncertainties include the interest of major powers in developing a wider spectrum of nuclear weapons and delivery systems possibly for use in limited nuclear wars and the competitive technologies for antimissile defenses being developed and deployed by the United States and Russia Other technology challenges including the implications of cyberwar for nuclear deterrence and crisis management are also considered Political changes also matter The early post Cold War hopes for the emergence of a global pacific security community excluding the possibility of major war have been dashed by political conflict between Russia and NATO by the roiled nature of American domestic politics with respect to international security and by a more assertive and militarily competent China Additionally the study includes suggestions for both analysis and policy in order to prevent the renewed U S Russian nuclear arms race and competition in new technologies This volume would be ideal for graduate students researchers scholars and anyone who is interested in nuclear policy international studies and Russian politics Institute of Pacific Relations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1951 Ideologies of Race David Rainbow,2019-10-17 Is the concept of race applicable to Russia and the Soviet Union Citing the idea of Russian exceptionalism many would argue that in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries while nationalities mattered race did not Others insist that race mattered no less in Russia than it did for European neighbours and countries overseas These conflicting notions have made it difficult to understand rising racial tensions in Russian and Eurasian societies in recent years A collection of new studies that reevaluate the meaning of race in Russia and the Soviet Union Ideologies of Race brings together historians literary scholars and anthropologists of Russia the Soviet Union Western Europe the United States the Caribbean and Latin America The essays shift the principle question from whether race meant the same thing in the region as it did in the classic racialized regimes such as Nazi Germany and the United States to how race worked in Russia and the Soviet Union during various periods in time Approaching race as an ideology this book illuminates the complicated and sometimes contradictory intersection between ideas about race and racializing practices An essential reminder of the tensions and biases that have had a direct and lasting impact on Russia Ideologies of Race yields crucial insights into the global history of race and its ongoing effects in the contemporary world Contributors include Adrienne Edgar University of California Santa Barbara Aisha Khan New York University Alaina Lemon University of Michigan Susanna Soojung Lim University of Oregon Marina Mogilner University of Illinois Chicago Brigid O Keeffe Brooklyn College David Rainbow University of Houston Gunja SenGupta Brooklyn College Vera Tolz University of Manchester Anika Walke Washington University St Louis Barbara Weinstein New York University and Eric Weitz City University of New York
