Sabbath and Synagogue Heather A. McKay, 2021-11-15 Sabbath worship as a communal event does not feature in the Hebrew Bible In the context of the first century CE according to Philo and Josephus the sabbath gatherings took place only for the purpose of studying the law and not for the liturgical recital of psalms or prayer Classical authors depict Jews spending the sabbath at home Jewish inscriptions provide no evidence of sabbath worship in prayer houses proseuchai while the Mishnah prescribes no special communal sabbath activities The usual picture of Jews going on the sabbath to the synagogue to worship thus appears to be without foundation It is even doubtful that there were synagogue buildings for synagogue normally meant community The conclusion of this study that there is no evidence that the sabbath was a day of communal Jewish worship before 200 CE has far reaching consequences for our understanding of early Jewish Christian relationships This publication has also been published in hardback please click here for details Sabbath and Synagogue Heather A. Grabbe, 2011-10-27 This is the second volume of the projected four volume history of the Second Temple period It is axiomatic that there are large gaps in the history of the Persian period but the early Greek period is possibly even less known This volume brings together all we know about the Jews during the period from Alexander's conquest to the eve of the Maccabean revolt including the Jews in Egypt as well as the situation in Judah Based directly on the primary sources which are surveyed the study addresses questions such as administration society religion economy jurisprudence Hellenism and Jewish identity These are discussed in the context of the wider Hellenistic world and its history A strength of the study is its extensive up to date secondary bibliography approximately one thousand items Studies in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity Pieter W. van der

Horst,2014-03-13 Over the past 45 years Professor Pieter W van der Horst contributed extensively to the study of ancient Judaism and early Christianity The 24 papers in this volume written since his early retirement in 2006 cover a wide range of topics all of them concerning the religious world of Judaism and Christianity in the Hellenistic Roman and early Byzantine era They reflect his research interests in Jewish epigraphy Jewish interpretation of the Bible Jewish prayer culture the diaspora in Asia Minor exegetical problems in the writings of Philo and Josephus Samaritan history texts from ancient Christianity which have received little attention the poems of Cyrus of Panopolis the Doctrina Jacobi nuper baptizati the Letter of Mara bar Sarapion and miscellanea such as the pagan myth of Jewish cannibalism the meaning of the Greek expression without God the religious significance of sneezing in pagan antiquity and the variety of stories about pious long sleepers in the ancient world pagan Jewish Christian Jewish Worship in Philo of Alexandria Jutta Leonhardt,Jutta

Leonhardt-Balzer,2001 As a knowledgeable contemporary of the later Second Temple Philo of Alexandria s approach to worship and his view of the essence of Jewish worship are of particular interest to the study of that period Jutta Leonhardt discusses his views on the Jewish festivals especially the Sabbath on prayer psalms hymns praise and thanksgiving and on Temple offerings sacrifices and purification rites These aspects are presented with their parallels in Jewish and pagan traditions and in Greek and Hellenistic philosophy Jewish worship in Philo has never been studied as a coherent whole before Only individual aspects of worship such as prayer of petition or thanksgiving or Philo has been used in studies on Second Temple Judaism as a quarry for general examples of acts of worship Philo accepted and participated in Jewish worship and even knew about details of various Jewish traditions of his time His writings however do not refer to them directly and cannot easily be used to reconstruct Jewish rituals of his time His main aim is to discuss the rites as collected in the Mosaic Torah since these are binding for all Jews These laws are frequently presented using the terminology of pagan cults and interpreted with recourse to Greek philosophy In this philosophical description of actual rites there are parallels to Plato s references to religion in the ideal state in the Nomoi Philo presents Judaism as the ultimate Hellenistic cult which combines the various aspects of the different pagan cults in a sublime and perfect form to represent mankind and the universe in the worship of the one God who created the world Jesus, Paul, and Early Christianity Rieuwerd Buitenwerf,Harm W. Spaulding,2009-04-09 Commemorative Identities represents a significantly new approach to the issue of replacement abrogation vs continuation of Jewish thought patterns and practices among Jewish Christ followers as they are addressed by the Johannine author Previous studies have been unable to elucidate a comprehensible argument to support continuation of commemoration in the face of explicit Temple replacement terminology in the Gospel This study provides that argument based upon known sociological observations and models and direct comparative analysis with Jewish practices pre and post 70 Mary Spaulding's study will further invigorate scholarly debate concerning identity issues in the Fourth Gospel a topic of significant interest among Johannine scholars today More generally the origins of Christianity as portrayed in the Gospel of John are understood as a gradual unfolding of and differentiation among various Jewish groups post Second Temple rather than as an abrupt break from an established normative Judaism Backgrounds of Early Christianity Everett
