The Sabian Book Marc E. Jones,1973-10-01 The Full Moons: Topical Letters In Esoteric Astrology Malvin Artley,2014-06-12 The Full Moons is an exploration of the Sun the Moon the Truth and their interrelation and it is the culmination of over ten years of letters the author has written on esoteric astrology A compendium of topics in esoteric astrology it explores the emerging universal spirituality gradually unfolding through the current decades as seen from the perspective of topical world events even though the principles investigated therein are timeless The twelve astrological signs each give a unique insight into various aspects of spirituality and each one has its own story to tell on the great evolutionary path of the soul Because the soul is so dear to us even though the subject matter of the book is esoteric in its presentation there is something in its pages for everyone whether or not you have an astrological background Ultimately this book can be used as reference material for the times of the full moon each month and for specified times in between The book is extensively indexed for ease of reference and it contains abundant reference material in the appendices along with a glossary of esoteric terminology Terra Christa Ken Carey,1986 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 India in the Persian World of Letters Arthur Dudley,2022 This book traces the development of philology the study of literary language in Persian tradition in India focusing socio political ramifications and provides an intellectual biography of rz an innovative and influential eighteenth century scholar and poet in India Books Out-of-print ,1986 Religious Books and Serials in Print 1978-1979 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978-11 Maimonides in His World Sarah Stroumsa,2009-08-31 While the great medieval philosopher theologian and physician Maimonides is acknowledged as a leading Jewish thinker his intellectual contacts with his surrounding world are often described as related primarily to Islamic philosophy Maimonides in His World challenges this view by revealing him to have wholeheartedly lived breathed and espoused the rich Mediterranean culture of his time Sarah Stroumsa argues that Maimonides is most accurately viewed as a Mediterranean thinker who consistently interpreted his own Jewish tradition in contemporary multicultural terms Maimonides spent his entire life in the Mediterranean region and the religious and philosophical traditions that fed his thought were those of the wider world in which he lived Stroumsa demonstrates that he was deeply influenced not only by Islamic philosophy but by Islamic culture as a whole evidence of which she finds in his philosophy as well as his correspondence and legal and scientific writings She begins with a concise biography of Maimonides then carefully examines key aspects of his thought including his approach to religion and the complex world of theology and religious ideas he encountered among Jews Christians Muslims and even heretics his views about science the immense and unacknowledged impact of the Almohads on his thought and his vision of human perfection This insightful cultural biography restores Maimonides to his rightful place among medieval philosophers and affirms his central relevance to the study of medieval Islam Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,R5ference Reed,1995-12 Encyclopedia of

An Introduction to Medieval Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman, 1985-04-25 An introduction to debates in philosophy within the medieval Islamic world

Shaping a Qur'anic Worldview Vanessa De Gifis, 2014-04-16 Exploring the subjectivity of the Qur n s meaning in the world this book analyses Qur nic referencing in Muslim political rhetoric Informed by classical Arabic Islamic rhetorical theory the author examines Arabic documents attributed to the Abb sid Caliph al Ma m n r 813 833 whose rule coincided with the maturation of classical Islamic political thought and literary culture She demonstrates how Qur nic referencing functions as tropological exegesis whereby verses in the Qur n are reinterpreted through the lens of subjective experience At the same time socio historical experiences are understood in terms of the Qur n s moral typology which consists of interrelated polarities that define good and bad moral characters in mutual orientation Through strategic deployment of scriptural references within the logical scheme of rhetorical argument the Caliph constructs moral analogies between paradigmatic characters in the Qur n and people in his social milieu and situates himself as moral reformer and guide in order to persuade his audiences of the necessity of the Caliphate and the religio moral imperative of obedience to his authority The Ma m nid case study is indicative of the nature and function of Qur nic referencing across historical periods and thus contributes to broader conversations about the impact of the Qur n on the shaping of Islamic civilization This book is an invaluable resource for those with an interest in Early Islamic History Islam and the rhetoric of contemporary Middle East regional and global Islamic politics
