

7 THE SACRAMENTS

Baptism

"Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word."

Anointing of the Sick

"By the sacred anointing of the sick and the prayer of the priests the whole Church commends those who are ill to the suffering and glorified Lord, that he may raise them up and save them, and indeed she exhorts them to contribute to the good of the People of God by freely uniting themselves to the Passion and death of Christ."

Confirmation

Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. For "by the sacrament of Confirmation, [the baptized] are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed."

Holy Orders

Holy Orders is the sacrament through which the mission entrusted by Christ to his apostles continues to be exercised in the Church until the end of time: thus it is the sacrament of apostolic ministry. It includes three degrees: episcopate, presbyterate, and diaconate.

Eucharist

The holy Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Those who have been raised to the dignity of the royal priesthood by Baptism and configured more deeply to Christ by Confirmation participate with the whole community in the Lord's own sacrifice by means of the Eucharist.

Marriage

"The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring; this covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament."

Confession

"Those who approach the sacrament of Confession obtain pardon from God's mercy for the offense committed against him, and are, at the same time, reconciled with the Church which they have wounded by their sins and which by charity, by example, and by prayer labors for their conversion."

Fulfilled in Christ: The Sacraments. A Guide to Symbols and Types in the Bible and Tradition Fr. Devin Roza, 2015-07-01 The Early Church read the Scriptures with the conviction that in the words of St Augustine The New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New Drawing inspiration from how both the Apostles and Christ himself read the Old Covenant as referring to the New cf Luke 24 27 1 Peter 3 20 21 1 Corinthians 10 1 5 the Church found the Old Testament to be rich with figures or types that foreshadowed both the mysteries of the life of Christ and the mysteries or sacraments of the New Covenant And yet in modern times the study of types or typology has been largely abandoned by scholars due to the dangers of subjectivity and exaggeration How can typology be studied in a way that is objective and that avoids the excesses present in the past Fr Devin Roza seeks to offer a solution to these difficulties by asking the question According to the Scriptures and the living Tradition of the Church what are the types and symbols of the sacraments and what do they mean As authorized representatives of the living Tradition the Liturgy including the readings from the Church Fathers and the Catechism together with the Scriptures offer both the scholar and pastor the opportunity to study typology as the Catholic Church herself understands and prays it today in those texts the Church considers her own Fulfilled in Christ thus offers a comprehensive and readable summary of references to types and symbols of the sacraments
