Honest Rituals, Honest Sacraments Joseph Martos, 2017-12-28 Honest rituals are ceremonial actions that celebrate what is actually happening in people's lives Religious rituals however often celebrate beliefs and doctrines e.g. the birth of Christ God's forgiveness of sins or the gifts of the Holy Spirit that have little to do with people's experience Martos argues that early Christian rituals were grounded in experiences such as conversion community commitment and self giving Lacking a vocabulary to name such experiences the authors of the New Testament and other early documents resorted to metaphors such as baptism into Christ receiving the Holy Spirit forgiveness by God and the presence of Christ during worship By the fourth century however those metaphors were taken to be unexperienced metaphysical realities rather than experienced realities The medieval schoolmen developed philosophical explanations of what went on in church rituals and the Catholic Church continues to teach that its sacraments are automatically effective despite growing evidence to the contrary What if religious rituals were to regain their original authenticity What if the guiding value in designing church ceremonies was honesty rather than liturgical correctness After liberating the reader from doctrinal constraints Martos invites Catholics into a re-visioning of the traditional sacraments and a reawakening of ritual imagination in non-Western cultures

Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process Susan Marie Smith, 2011-11-15 Most people even non Christians know that Christians gather for worship once a week and that they are right there to support each other when there is a baptism or a wedding or a funeral But what about other poignant vulnerable or life changing times How does the church help people handle changes that in the past in Christendom were considered secular Does the church have a role at retirement when one's ministry changes or when a family's children leave home and familiar patterns seem to grind to a halt Is there any rite possible for someone who is called to Christian ministry but not to ordination Or to someone whose vows are broken in divorce

Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process asserts that baptism marks the beginning of a process of participation in Christ's ministry so that no part of life can finally be considered secular Susan Marie Smith shows how every passage healing and ministry vocation is holy and she lays the groundwork needed for every church to create the rituals necessary to lament and celebrate the endings and beginnings that happen in every Christian life

Scieno-spirituality S?ddhak, 2017-10-13 Modern science based on logical reasoning has made human life a wonderful experience We have almost conquered time and space with almost everything that exists within it Humans should have been the happiest beings but that is not the case Something is missing in our pursuit of happiness We need to take a deep breath and think over it Spiritualists are the happiest persons They command both respect and reverence from us Let us not confuse spiritualist with an ascetic or a religious practitioner It is all about the control of mind where all thoughts originate Vedic knowledge the repository for development of human life states that the mind is all about consciousness Consciousness is the perception of what passes in the mind Modern science looks differently at a mind Though it considers mind as a repository of all consciousness but it considers the mind as a physical process only There is nothing spiritual about it That makes the starting point of our search for connecting science with spirituality The Vedic philosophy is developed around these thoughts Yog Sutra credited to Patanjali is a repository of yogic practices which recommend developing mental awareness through sense control while another tradition called tantra says that senses have no role in controlling the mind It provides alternative practices
