Sacred Mountain Sacred River:

Sacred Mountain Sacred River , The Roaring of the Sacred River Steven Foster, Meredith Little, 1989 The native American vision quest a ritual of self discovery An opportunity to confront one s fears and to embrace one s dreams A challenge to take charge of one s own life The gift of being changed forever In this companion to The Book of the Vision Quest Steven Foster and Meredith Little elaborate on an ancient rite of passage that has much needed resonance for the seeker of today Leading us step by step through the wilderness toward the Sacred Mountain it is a story not just of personal healing but of sacrifice love and the need to share this healing vision with others Back cover Religion, Ritual and Ritualistic Objects Albertina (Tineke) Nugteren, 2019-04-23 This is a volume about the life and power of ritual objects in their religious ritual settings In this Special Issue we see a wide range of contributions on material culture and ritual practices across religions By focusing on the dynamic interrelations between objects ritual and belief it explores how religion happens through symbolic materiality The ritual objects presented in this volume include masks worn in the Dogon dance antique ecclesiastical silver objects carried around in festive processions and shown in shrines in the southern Andes funerary photographs and films functioning as mnemonic objects for grieving children a dented rock surface perceived to be the god s footprint in the archaic place of pilgrimage Gaya India a recovered manual of rituals from Xiapu county for Mani the founder of Manichaeism juxtaposed to a Manichaean painting from southern China sacred stories and related sacred stones in the Alor Pantar archipelago Indonesia lotus symbolism indicating immortalizing plants in the mythic traditions of Egypt the Levant and Mesopotamia lavishly illustrated variations of portrayals of Ravana a Sinhalese god king demon figurines made of cow dung sculptured by rural women in Rajasthan India and mythical artifacts called Apples of Eden in a well known interactive game series Hindu Places of Pilgrimage in India Surinder M. Bhardwaj, 1983-07-08 Dr Bhardwaj s in depth study of the various aspects of the institution of pilgrimage shows that instead of being a simple practice it has been a gigantic phenomenon affecting all aspects of Indian life integrating diverse forces various cults and numerous traditions over the ages Asian Student This is the best general survey of a major religion s total pilgrimage system and the best intensive investigation of one of its subsystems Dr Bhardwaj s book is an important step towards the recognition of a social phenomenon which has for millennia played a crucial role in the integration of religions nationalities and international communities And not least importantly it is highly readable Journal of the American Academy of Religion Detailed accurate and generally informative he has succeeded in tracing for the first time the relationship of the rank order or level of a sacred place to its degree of sanctity type of deity and caste and motivation of the pilgrim The implications of Mr Bhardwaj s study are profound and necessary to the understanding of Indian religion it is fascinating Times Literary Supplement Here is a fine example of what the geographic study of India needs disciplined work that shows full awareness of Indian cultural meanings it sets a worth standard Professional Geographer Spirit of the Environment David E Cooper, Joy A Palmer, 2004-06-02

Spirit of the Environment brings spiritual and religious concerns to environmental issues Providing a much needed alternative to exploring human beings relationship to the natural world through the restrictive lenses of science ecology or even morality this book offers a fresh perspective to the field Spirit of the Environment addresses the environmental attitudes of the major religions the relationship between art and nature the Gaia hypothesis the non instrumental values which have inspired environmental concern Contributors range from a variety of disciplines including philosophy comparative religion education and social anthropology providing students with an intriguing survey on the role that spirituality and religion play in nature This is a vital collection for those eager to examine the relationship between the spiritual and the environment

Religious Epiphanies Across Traditions and Cultures James Kellenberger, 2017-08-08 This book explores religious epiphanies in which there is the appearance of God a god or a goddess or a manifestation of the divine or religious reality as received in human experience Drawing upon the scriptures of various traditions ancillary religious writings psychological and anthropological studies as well as reports of epiphanic experiences the book presents and examines epiphanies as they have occurred across global religious traditions and cultures historically and up to the present day Primarily providing a study of the great range of epiphanies in their phenomenal presentation Kellenberger also explores issues that arise for epiphanies such as the matter of their veridicality whether they are truly of or from the divine and the question of whether all epiphanies are of the same religious reality

Sacred Natural Sites Bas Verschuuren, Robert Wild, Jeffrey Mcneely, Gonzalo Oviedo, 2012-06-25 Sacred Natural Sites are the world's oldest protected places This book focuses on a wide spread of both iconic and lesser known examples such as sacred groves of the Western Ghats India Sagarmatha Chomolungma Mt Everest Nepal Tibet and China the Golden Mountains of Altai Russia Holy Island of Lindisfarne UK and the sacred lakes of the Niger Delta Nigeria The book illustrates that sacred natural sites although often under threat exist within and outside formally recognised protected areas heritage sites Sacred natural sites may well be some of the last strongholds for building resilient networks of connected landscapes They also form important nodes for maintaining a dynamic socio cultural fabric in the face of global change The diverse authors bridge the gap between approaches to the conservation of cultural and biological diversity by taking into account cultural and spiritual values together with the socio economic interests of the custodian communities and other relevant stakeholders

Ethnoecology Virginia D. Nazarea, 1999-01-01 The re emerging field of ethnoecology offers a promising way to document and analyze human environment interactions Case studies by international experts explore the varied views of scholars on the human dimension of conservation and the different views of local peoples regarding their own environments Filled with peoples voices from North and South America Africa and Asia these cases cover a range of issues natural resource conservation and sustainable development the relationship between local knowledge and biodiversity the role of the commons in development and the importance of diversity and equity in environmental management Ethnoecology Situated Knowledge Located Lives is intended for a wide range of specialists not only in social and natural sciences but also in agricultural studies It conveys the overriding importance of this powerful methodological approach in providing insiders perspectives on their environments and how they manage them Al-Hind, Volume 2 Slave Kings and the Islamic Conquest, 11th-13th Centuries André Wink,2021-10-25 During the early medieval Islamic expansion in the seventh to eleventh centuries al Hind India and its Indianized hinterland was characterized by two organizational modes the long distance trade and mobile wealth of the peripheral frontier states and the settled agriculture of the heartland These two different types of social economic and political organization were successfully fused during the eleventh to thirteenth centuries and India became the hub of world trade During this period the Middle East declined in importance Central Asia was unified under the Mongols and Islam expanded far into the Indian subcontinent Instead of being devastated by the Mongols who were prevented from penetrating beyond the western periphery of al Hind by the absence of sufficient good pasture land the agricultural plains of North India were brought under Turko Islamic rule in a gradual manner in a conquest effected by professional armies and not accompanied by any large scale nomadic invasions The result of the conquest was in short the revitalization of the economy of settled agriculture through the dynamic impetus of forced monetization and the expansion of political dominion Islamic conquest and trade laid the foundation for a new type of Indo Islamic society in which the organizational forms of the frontier and of sedentary agriculture merged in a way that was uniquely successful in the late medieval world at large setting the Indo Islamic world apart from the Middle East and China in the same centuries Please note that The Slave Kings and the Islamic Conquest 11th 13th Centuries was previously published by Brill in hardback ISBN 90 04 10236 1 still available Al-Hind: The Slavic Kings and the Islamic conquest, 11th-13th centuries André Wink,2002 During the eleventh to thirteenth centuries Islamic conquest and trade laid the foundation for a new type of Indo Islamic society in which the organizational forms of the frontier and of sedentary agriculture merged in a way that was uniquely successful in the late medieval world at large setting the Indo Islamic world apart from the Middle East and China in the same centuries Improvement of the American Indian Religious Freedom Act United States.
