The Vietnam War in Popular Culture Ron Milam, 2016-11-07 Covering many aspects of the Vietnam War that have not been addressed before this book supplies new perspectives from academics as well as Vietnam veterans that explore how this key conflict of the 20th century has influenced everyday life and popular culture during the war as well as for the past 50 years How did the experience of the Vietnam War change the United States not just in the 1950s through the 1970s but through to today What role do popular music and movies play in how we think of the Vietnam War How similar are the recent wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and now Syria to the Vietnam War in terms of duration cost success and failure rates and veteran issues This two volume set addresses these questions and many more examining how the Vietnam War has been represented in media music and film and how American popular culture changed because of the war Accessibly written and appropriate for students and general readers this work documents how the war that occurred on the other side of the globe in the jungles of Vietnam impacted everyday life in the United States and influenced various entertainment modes It not only covers the impact of the counterculture revolution popular music about Vietnam recorded while the war was being fought and after and films made immediately following the end of the war in the 1970s but also draws connections to more modern events and popular culture expressions such as films made in the aftermath of September 11 2001 Attention is paid to the impact of social movements like the environmental movement and the civil rights movement and their relationships to the Vietnam War The set will also highlight how the experiences and events of the Vietnam War are still impacting current generations through television shows such as Mad Men

Sacrifice and Modern War Literature Alex Houen, Jan-Melissa Schramm, 2018 This book explores how writers from the early nineteenth century to the present have addressed the intimacy of sacrifice and war Each chapter presents fresh insights into the literature of a particular conflict The range of literature examined complements the rich array of topics related to wartime sacrifice that the contributors discuss

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen, 2024-09-05 Sacrifice and Modern War Writing presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war's reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war's reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war's sacrifices That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war

Critical Theology against US Militarism in Asia Nami Kim, Wonhee Anne Joh, 2016-12-24 Drawing on cultural studies scholar Kuan Hsing Chen s threefold notion of decolonization deimperialization and de cold war this book provides analyses of the interrelated issues concerning the relationship between Christianity and the United States imperialist militarism in the Asia Pacific Contributors explore the effects of US imperialist militarism on the formation of Asian and Asian American collective subjectivity and inter intra subjectivity The book investigates the ways in which Christianity broadly defined in its own complexity has been complicit in maintaining and reinforcing US imperialist military agendas in both national and international contexts Conversely the volume also discusses the various sites and instances where Christianity has managed to serve as a force of resistance against US imperialist militarism

Human Rights and the Arts Lily Cho, Susan J. Henders, 2014-10-23 Human Rights and the Arts Perspectives on Global Asia approaches human rights issues from the perspective of artists and writers in global Asia By focusing on the interventions of writers artists filmmakers and dramatists the book moves toward a new understanding of human rights that shifts the discussion of contexts and subjects away from the binaries of cultural relativism and political sovereignty From Ai Wei Wei and Michael Ondaatje to Umar Kayam Saryang Kim Lia Zixin and Noor Zaheer among others this volume takes its lead from global Asian artists powerfully re orienting thinking about human rights subjects and contexts to include the physical spiritual social ecological cultural and the transnational Looking at a range of work from Tibet Indonesia Sri Lanka India China Bangladesh Japan Korea Vietnam and Macau as well as Asian diasporic communities this book puts forward an understanding of global Asia that underscores Asia as a global site It also highlights the continuing importance of nation states and specific geographical entities while stressing the ways that the human rights subject breaks out of these boundaries Many of these works are included in the companion volume Human Rights and the Arts in Global Asia An Anthology also published by Lexington Books Silence and Sacrifice Merav Shohet, 2021-04-20 How do families remain close when turbulent forces threaten to tear them apart In this groundbreaking book based on more than a decade of research set in Vietnam Merav Shohet explores what happens across generations to families that survive imperialism war and massive political and economic upheaval Placing personal sacrifice at the center of her story Shohet recounts vivid experiences of conflict love and loss In doing so her work challenges the idea that sacrifice is merely a blood filled religious ritual or patriotic act Today domestic sacrifices made largely by women precariously knot family members together by silencing suffering and naturalizing cross cutting gender age class and political hierarchies In rethinking ordinary ethics this intimate ethnography reveals how quotidian acts of sacrifice help family members forge a sense of continuity in the face of trauma and decades of dramatic change Tragic Novels, René Girard and the American Dream Carly Osborn, 2020-05-14 This book draws on the philosopher Ren Girard to argue that three twentieth century American novels Jeffrey Eugenides s The Virgin Suicides Rick Moody s The Ice Storm and Richard Yates s Revolutionary Road are tragedies Until now Girardian literary analysis has generally focused on representations of human desire in texts and neglected both other emotions and the place of tragedy Carly Osborn addresses these omissions by using Girardian theory to present evidence that novels can indeed be tragedies The book advances the scholarship of tragedy that has run from Aristotle to Nietzsche to Terry Eagleton proposing a new way to read modern novels through ancient traditions In addition this is the first work to examine the place of women as victims or in Girardian terms scapegoats in twentieth century fiction specifically by considering the representation of women s bodies and ambivalence about their identities In deploying a rich and vivid array of tragic tropes The Virgin Suicides The Ice Storm and Revolutionary Road participate in a deep rooted American tragic tradition Tragic Novels the American Dream and Ren Girard will be of interest to those working at the intersection of philosophy and literature as well as Girard specialists Abraham on Trial Carol Delaney, 2020-09-01 Abraham on Trial questions the foundations of faith that have made a virtue out of the willingness to sacrifice a child Through his desire to obey God at all costs even if it meant sacrificing his son Abraham became the definitive model of faith for the major world religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam In this bold look at the legacy of this biblical and qur'anic story Carol Delaney explores how the sacrifice rather than the protection of children became the focus of faith to the point where the abuse and betrayal of children has today become widespread and sometimes institutionalized Her strikingly original analysis also offers a new perspective on what unites and divides the peoples of the sibling religions derived from Abraham and implicitly a way to overcome the increasing violence among them Delaney critically examines evidence from Jewish Christian and Muslim interpretations from archaeology and Freudian theory as well as a recent trial in which a father sacrificed his child in obedience to God s voice and shows how the meaning of Abraham s story is bound up with a specific notion of fatherhood The preeminence of the father which is part of the meaning of the name Abraham comes from the still operative theory of procreation in which men transmit life by means of their seed an image that encapsulates the generative creative power that symbolically allies men with God The communities of faith argue interminably about who is the true seed of Abraham who can claim the patrimony but until now no one has asked what is this seed Kinship and origin myths the cultural construction of fatherhood and motherhood suspicions of actual child sacrifices in ancient times and a revisiting of Freud's Oedipus complex all contribute to Delaney's remarkably rich discussion She shows how the story of Abraham legitimates a hierarchical structure of authority a specific form of family definitions of gender and the value of obedience that have become the bedrock of society The question she leaves us with is whether we should perpetuate this story and the lessons it teaches

Theatres of Human Sacrifice Mark Pizzato, 2004-11-18 Contemporary debates about mass media violence tend to ignore the long history of staged violence in the theatres and rituals of many cultures In Theatres of Human Sacrifice Mark Pizzato relates the appeal and possible effects of screen violence today in sports movies and television news to specific sacrificial rites and performance conventions in ancient Greek Aztec and Roman culture Using the psychoanalytic theories of Lacan Kristeva and Žižek as well as the theatrical theories of Artaud and Brecht the book offers insights into the ritual lures and effects of current mass media spectatorship especially regarding the pleasures purposes and risks of violent display Updating Aristotle's notion of catharsis Pizzato identifies a sacrificial imperative within the human mind structured by various patriarchal cultures and manifested in distinctive rites and dramas with both positive and negative potential effects on their audiences

Melancholia and Maturation Eric L. Tribunella, 2010-01-15 Coming of age in children's fiction often means achieving maturity through the experience of trauma In classics ranging from Old Yeller to The Outsiders a narrative of psychological pain defies expectations of childhood as a time of innocence and play In this provocative new book Eric L. Tribunella explores why trauma especially the loss of a loved object occurs in some of the most popular and critically acclaimed twentieth century American fiction for children Tribunella draws on queer theory and feminist revisions of Freud's notion of melancholia which is described as a fundamental response to loss arguing that the low grade symptoms of melancholia are in fact what characterize the mature sober and responsible American adult Melancholia and Maturation looks at how this effect is achieved in a society that purports to protect youngsters from every possible source of danger thus requiring melancholia to be induced artificially Each of the book s five chapters focuses on a different kind of lost object sacrificed so as to propel the child toward a distinctively gendered sexual ethical and national adulthood from same sex friends to the companionship of boy and his dog stories from the lost ideals of historical fiction about the American Revolution to the children killed or traumatized in Holocaust novels The author examines a wide spectrum of works including Jack London s dog tales the contemporary realistic novels of S E Hinton and Newbery Medal winners like Johnny Tremain and Bridge to Terabithia Tribunella raises fundamental questions about the value of children s literature as a whole and provides context for understanding why certain books become required reading for youth Eric L Tribunella is assistant professor of English at the University of Southern Mississippi His articles have been published in Children s Literature Association Quarterly Children s Literature in Education The Lion and the Unicorn A Critical Journal of Children s Literature and Children s Literature américaine Bernadette Rigal-Cellard, 1991 Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass, 2013-03-22 For the city's first two hundred years the story told at Washington DC's symbolic center the National Mall was about triumphant American leaders. Since 1982 when the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated the narrative has shifted to emphasize the memory of American wars. In the last thirty years five significant war memorials have been built on or very nearly on the Mall. The Vietnam Veterans Memorial, the Korean War Veterans Memorial, the Women in Military Service for America Memorial, the National Japanese American Memorial to Patriotism During WWII and the National World War II Memorial have not only transformed the physical space of the Mall but have also dramatically rewritten ideas about U.S. nationalism expressed there. In Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass examines this war memorial boom, the debates about war and race and gender and patriotism that shaped the memorials and the new narratives about the nature of American citizenship that they spawned. Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall explores the meanings we have made in exchange for the lives of our soldiers and asks if we have made good on our enormous responsibility to them.
