Three Years' Way Christiaan Rudolf de Wet, 2020-07-29 Reproduction of the original Three Years Way by Christiaan Rudolf de Wet     The Educator Central Society of Education (London, England), John Lalor, John Abraham Heraud, Edward Higginson, James Simpson, 1839     Circle of Protest Ronald D. Schwartz, 1996-01-01 ABOUT THE BOOK An inside look into Tibetan resistance to Chinese occupation this book charts the emergence of nonviolent protest in the years since 1987 Schwartz locates the resistance in Tibetan religion and culture and in the role of a younger generation     The Opium of the Intellectuals Raymond Aron, 2017-07-05 Raymond Aron's 1955 masterpiece The Opium of the Intellectuals is one of the great works of twentieth century political reflection Aron shows how noble ideas can slide into the tyranny of secular religion and emphasizes how political thought has the profound responsibility of telling the truth about social and political reality in all its mundane imperfections and tragic complexities Aron explodes the three myths of radical thought the Left the Revolution and the Proletariat Each of these ideas Aron shows are ideological mystifying rather than illuminating He also provides a fascinating sociology of intellectual life and a powerful critique of historical determinism in the classically restrained prose for which he is justly famous For this new edition prepared by Daniel J Mahoney and Brian C Anderson as part of Transaction's ongoing Aron Project political scientist Harvey Mansfield provides a luminous introduction that underscores the permanent relevance of Aron's work The new edition also includes as an appendix Fanaticism Prudence and Faith a remarkable essay that Aron wrote to defend Opium from its critics and to explain further his view of the proper role of political thinking The book will be of interest to all students of political theory history and sociology     The Theosophist, 1910     Martyrdom and Sacrifice in Islam Meir Hatina, 2016-11-14 Over the years the belief system around self sacrifice has become key to understanding the Middle East and its political relationships with the West although much of the literature and conversation has been restricted to modern concepts of jihadism The recent spate of scholarship relating to suicide bombers and jihadists studies these concepts without a broader understanding of the principle of martyrdom This book expands on the chronology of self sacrifice within Islam and contextualises the use of suicide bombings using details of the rise of martyrdom in places such as Iraq Lebanon Chechnya and Pakistan It historicises the background in which jihad has been glorified while also exploring contemporary methods of recruitment like the use of the internet The authors pay close attention to the different sects and factions of Islam and the differing interpretations of jihad that accompany these ideologies In the current political climate a book that explores martyrdom within the framework of historical perspectives geographical regions and the influence of outside cultures is essential     The Internal Fabric of Western Security Gregory Flynn, 2025-03-03 Changes in domestic economic and political conditions together with a loss of confidence in the United States leadership produced serious problems within the Atlantic Alliance The Internal Fabric of Western Security first published in 1981 examines the effects of domestic change upon perceived security requirements and explores ways to deal with the problems that developed

Beginning with an examination of Allied and European relations the book outlines external challenges to security that the Alliance faces in the 1980s and discusses internal problems that affect member nations ability to deal with them Country studies of the four largest European members of the Alliance systematically examine domestic constraints on security policy and assess probable approaches for the 1980s A more general analysis is offered on how this situation affects the Allies ability to work together in dealing with their common security problems The need to integrate economic and military requirements is also discussed

Building Security in Europe's New Borderlands Renata Dwan,2016-07-08 While European integration advances many of the countries along Europe s eastern and southern periphery have fallen prey to chronic conflict punctuated by a series of small wars Exacerbating the situation has been the lack of effective organizational means for mediating local conflicts facilitating regional development and structuring cooperation with larger regional and international institutions What are the prospects for enhancing security in the most volatile subregions of post communist Europe This text examines the external and internal factors that impede or foster subregional cooperation in South Eastern and East Central Europe and the Caucasus It includes chapters situating these borderlands in the context of a wider Europe with an evolving security architecture

Nonparametric Regression and Generalized Linear Models P.J. Green,Bernard. W. Silverman,1993-05-01 In recent years there has been a great deal of interest and activity in the general area of nonparametric smoothing in statistics This monograph concentrates on the roughness penalty method and shows how this technique provides a unifying approach to a wide range of smoothing problems The method allows parametric assumptions to be realized in regression problems in those approached by generalized linear modelling and in many other contexts The emphasis throughout is methodological rather than theoretical and it concentrates on statistical and computation issues Real data examples are used to illustrate the various methods and to compare them with standard parametric approaches Some publicly available software is also discussed The mathematical treatment is self contained and depends mainly on simple linear algebra and calculus This monograph will be useful both as a reference work for research and applied statisticians and as a text for graduate students and other encountering the material for the first time
