Sg The Offender In The Community:

Community Development Arenas In Singapore S Vasoo, Bilveer Singh, Xian Jie Chan, 2019-09-26 In the last two decades or so community development efforts in Singapore have strongly focused on task centred community activities namely short term projects revolving around socio educational and recreational activities Such an emphasis is further reinforced by the outsourcing of community services to the private sector which is contracted to deliver services or activities Although the consequences are not seen immediately they will in the longer term reinforce learned helplessness of the participants or beneficiaries who are usually relegated to passive or dependent roles Through the insights of contributors who are practitioners in the community development field this book argues that more resources and initiatives must be accorded to community organisations so as to redirect to a community or resident centric approach towards community work intervention In short more reaching out to people or community groups should be undertaken Covering a broad range of arenas including health housing ageing community integration and bonding among others this book will open up a wider horizon for community development efforts and provide a reservoir of ideas and strategies to build a stronger and resilient community for more effective community problem solving Singapore Criminal Laws, Regulations and Procedures Handbook: Strategic Information, Regulations, Procedures IBP, Inc., 2015-06 Singapore Criminal Laws Regulations and Procedures Handbook Strategic Information Regulations Procedures Blackstone's Criminal Practice 2012, 2012

Trends in Corrections Jennie K. Singer, Dilip K. Das, Eileen Ahlin, 2012-10-05 Offering rare insiders perspectives Trends in Corrections Interviews with Corrections Leaders Around the World is a comprehensive survey of correctional programming and management styles used across nations Twelve chapters present transcribed interviews of corrections leaders along with a brief portrait of the corrections system in those jurisdictions. The leaders interviewed represent a variety of cultures, political environments and economic systems and come from North America, Canada, Mexico and the United States, Asia, Singapore, Australia, the Caribbean, Trinidad and Tobago and Europe, England, Hungary and Bosnia Herzegovina. Topics discussed in this insightful collection of interviews include: Working conditions for correction officers, How governmental changes can impact a prison system, Overcrowding problems and efforts to modernize prisons, Recidivism concerns and programs that facilitate offender reintegration into society upon release, Effects of the media's portrayal of prisons on communities. The final chapter reflects on the interviews and summarizes the common themes evident throughout the book. Advancing knowledge about corrections systems worldwide, this volume bridges the gap of knowledge that exists between scholars and researchers in academia and practitioners in the field. The candid discussions presented herein are destined to open further dialogue among these professionals, adding value to current operations and informing future directions.

Group Work In Correctional Rehabilitation: Practitioners' Experiences In Singapore Prison Service Boon Siang Kwek, Troy Jack Thevathasan, Karen Li Ling Wong, 2025-06-17. Group work in the Singapore Prison Service (SPS) started in 2001 and has remained as the main channel for rehabilitation to take place. This book explores the transformative power of group therapy within a correctional setting, offering a comprehensive guide for therapists, psychologists, counsellors and prison staff who facilitate therapeutic groups for incarcerated individuals. Grounded in evidence-informed practices, this work delves into SPS's progressive and professional approaches in rehabilitation through the lens of specialists and correctional officers who lead intervention groups for prisoners and drug abusers accumulated over the last two decades. The book provides insights into the unique ethical considerations of leading groups in a prison setting and the role correctional officers can also play in leading groups. With real-life case studies, facilitator tips and guidance on managing group dynamics in a high security environment, the book provides practitioners with the knowledge and understanding about working with individuals to improve decision-making skills and fostering positive behavioural change.

Routledge International Handbook of Investigative Interviewing and Interrogation Dave Walsh, Ray Bull, Igor Areh, 2024-08-09. This handbook provides readers with coverage of the various interview and interrogation techniques used across the world with victims, witnesses and suspected offenders. It includes exclusive coverage on countries rarely if ever previously reported upon in the literature to any substantive depth. Bringing together a collection of chapters from over 40 countries, this handbook advises and explains the practices used in crime interviewing and informs the reader of contemporary developments hitherto unreported in any current book on interviewing and interrogation. In doing so, the Routledge International Handbook of Investigative Interviewing and Interrogation showcases global exemplars of evidence-based practice informed by scientific research. Building on recent research including protocols developed in a variety of countries, this book is particularly timely in the wake of the M'Nae Principles, a set of principles developed by the UN to counter the ill treatment of suspects during police questioning and ii to gather more reliable information This handbook will be an essential reference text across criminology criminal justice policing and investigation studies and law
