The Anthropology of Eastern Religions Murray J. Leaf, 2014-05-21

The world's great religions depend on traditions of serious scholarship dedicated to preserving their key texts but also to understanding them and therefore to debating what understanding itself is and how best to do it. They also have important public missions of many kinds and their ideas and organizations influence many other important institutions including government, law, education and kinship.

Anthropology of Eastern Religions Ideas, Organizations and Constituencies is a comparative survey of the world's major religious traditions as professional enterprises and often as social movements. Documenting the principle ideas behind eastern religious traditions from an anthropological perspective, Murray J. Leaf demonstrates how these ideas have been used in building internal organizations that mobilize or fail to mobilize external support.
