Weiss, 1989-07-03 This book investigates the reciprocal and often transgressive relations between rhetorical figures and libidinal activity The works of Nietzsche Artaud Bataille Klossowski and Sade are reconsidered in light of the modernist and postmodernist problematics of simulacra fascination sublimation and desublimation perversion deconstruction and libidinal economies Reading across the boundaries of philosophy art history comparative literature film studies and psychoanalytic theory this work reveals the manner in which theoretical discourse is imbued with passional motivations and conversely shows how the passions are structured according to logical and rhetorical figures In offering specific rereadings of several key figures of our modernist tradition this work helps identify the sources of the postmodern condition It thus provides a theoretical foundation for contemporary art and literary criticism especially of those works to be found at the margins of our culture
