Vardell, 2006-02-20 From choosing a poem and developing presentations that will keep the audience captivated to using promotional displays and materials Poetry Aloud Here takes the reader through all the steps of introducing poetry for children Poetry in Literature for Youth Angela Leeper, 2006-03-28 Poetry in Literature for Youth offers teachers librarians parents and students with an instrumental guide for incorporating all forms of poetry into the curriculum More than 900 annotated entries provide descriptions of books and other resources including anthologies classics various poetry formats poetry novels multicultural poetry performance poetry teen poetry poet biographies and curriculum connections Educators who are often unaware of the poetry resources available particularly for young adults will welcome this book with open arms Lists for building a core poetry collection along with resources for teaching poetry criticism and writing electronic poetry resources booktalks classroom activities and lesson plans complement this guide Author Geographic Grade Subject and Title indexes are also included For anyone interested in knowing more about poetry in literature this is an indispensable guide Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present As the only reference volume of its kind available this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature whether one is a student a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection or a scholar of children's literature The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children's literature and books for young adults The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author/illustrator entries the addition of approximately 50 new profiles and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children's literature

Literature-based Instruction with English Language Learners, K-12 Nancy L. Hadaway, Sylvia M. Vardell, Terrell A. Young, 2002 This book takes a literature based approach to how children learn language and how it is taught in today's diverse K-12 classrooms. The material is based on the belief that literature offers the most effective instructional approach for English language learners. The book offers meaningful reading, writing, speaking, and listening activities as well as new understandings about the forms and functions of written language. This is the first book that offers instructors guidance in expanding the range of materials they use for teaching ESL by going beyond the standard texts to include books of all kinds: children's literature, trade books, magazines, and other media. Voices from the Classroom: Scenarios from K-12 classrooms with English language learners are provided throughout the chapters, offering practical stories from teachers' points of view. K-12 Educators with diverse student populations

For Younger Readers, 2000 Sharing the Journey Katherine Ball Ross, 2007 A timeless collection of memoirs culled from the pages of Victoria magazine by some of the finest women writers around. Such distinguished authors as Diane Ackerman, Jane Howard, Perri Klass, Madeleine L. Engle, Susan Minot, Francine Prose, Carol Shields, and Jane Smiley have contributed to these pages, and their emotionally rich, lovingly crafted essays embrace all phases of a woman's life as well as literature and the process of writing itself. The topics so insightfully and often poignantly explored include childhood, motherhood, solitude, rituals, home, sisters, and remembering the past. From Phyllis Theroux's memories of her convent education to Susan Schneider's thoughts on living in A Gently Haunted House, each piece will touch your heart, mind, and soul.

A Celebration of Literature and Response Marjorie R. Hancock, 2004 Reinforced by teachers' experiences in actual classrooms, this book provides a wealth of ideas for projects, readings, and response-based activities that will engage all learners in the joy of reading and responding to literature. It blends an appreciation of children's books across all genres with an emphasis on meaningful instructional strategies for literacy programs. Coverage of multicultural, international literature helps illustrate the universality of themes in children's literature, providing a basis for establishing a library of literature that expresses the totality of children's experiences and speaks to children from all cultures and backgrounds. Coverage is based on Louise Rosenblatt's transactional theory of reader response and organized around five main celebrations that the author uses as a framework for uniting the findings of reader response theory with quality children's literature and exemplary reflective literature-based practice. Includes expanded coverage on multicultural, international literature, including numerous examples of children's literature written and published in other countries. Includes extensive coverage of reader responses to literature, oral and written responses as well as those made through the visual arts. For teachers of Children's Literature. Introduces future teachers to the full range of children's responses to literature, encourages the use of a variety of strategies to elicit authentic, heartfelt, meaningful responses from pupils. An appendix on children's literature awards. Highlights exemplary children's literature across all genres, focuses students attention on established standards and offers guidance for choosing literature that meets such standards
