Journal & Companion Guide Tom Harpur,1999 Who Prays These Days Almost all of us do The practice of prayer is shared by an overwhelming majority across diverse beliefs and backgrounds But with the ongoing decline in the membership of institutional religion it s apparent that many people don t go to church to pray Many of us now turn to literature for spiritual guidance This journal will help you to reconnect with your inner need for prayer Prayers are extremely personal an intimate conversation coming from a deep human desire to communicate with God But too many of us are locked into a one dimensional model of prayer How do you pray with your whole heart if you are still relying on the prayers of early childhood that begin Now I lay me down to sleep or the official formally structured prayers of institutional religion Tom Harpur invites readers to view prayer as an intimate conversation with a personal God and to use the same language as they would use with a lover or a best friend Harpur brings the broad theological perspective of prayer to the personal level by exploring the deep yearning that calls one to prayer He includes suggestions which will help both the fully initiated and the bewildered novice experience more practically and deeply the spiritual benefits of prayer He also includes for personal adaptation a chapter of prayers written for his own use This is a truly down to earth simple yet honest from the heart and from the gut book on prayer that will help you discover what prayer means to you 31 Days of Prayer Journal Warren Myers,Ruth Myers,1997

Church Christians have consecrated time by pausing at various moments throughout the day to pray the Liturgy of the Hours. Guide for Celebrating Liturgy of the Hours: Children's Daily Prayer is a form of the Liturgy of the Hours adapted for children. It helps guide children in a daily service of communal prayer following the pattern of the Church's Morning Prayer. The heart of this annual resource is a simple order of prayer for each day and week that can be easily led by a child. Designed to fit seamlessly into your day, the entire prayer service takes no more than five to eight minutes. Daily Scripture texts have been carefully selected to help children walk through the Bible and become familiar with the great stories and themes of salvation history. Children's Daily Prayer 2025 through 2026 includes an order of prayer for each day and week of the school year from August 24, 2025, to June 26, 2026. Prayer services suitable for classroom and large gatherings for solemnities, feasts, and other special occasions. An About the Season section explaining each liturgical time, its character, and how to create conducive prayer environments. Send home pages connecting children's classroom and home lives. Instructions for parents on using the book with their children at home and how to set up a prayer space. Pronunciation guides have been added in the Opening sections and within the Scripture passages to accommodate young readers who will be leading prayer.
