

A detailed still-life arrangement of various traditional Arab musical instruments. In the background, a large wooden harp stands on the left. Several stringed instruments, including ouds with their characteristic pear-shaped bodies and fretless necks, and qanuns with long necks and multiple strings, are positioned in the center and back. In the foreground, a variety of drums are displayed: a large, ornate drum with a wide head, several smaller goblet-shaped drums (darbeks) with intricate patterns, and a long, narrow drum lying horizontally. The instruments are made of wood and feature elaborate carvings and painted designs. The text "ARAB MUSIC & INSTRUMENTS" is overlaid in the center in a bold, black, sans-serif font.
