affecting memoir Fox describes her movements across Europe's scrambled borders unplanned trips to empty castles and ruined cathedrals a stint in bombed out Warsaw in the midst of the Communist election takeovers and nights spent in apartments here and there with distant relatives friends of friends and in shabby pensions with little heat each place echoing with the horrors of the war A young woman alone with neither a plan nor a reliable paycheck Fox made her way with the rest of Europe as the continent rebuilt and rediscovered itself among the ruins Long revered as a novelist Fox won over a new generation of readers with her previous memoir Borrowed Finery Now with The Coldest Winter she recounts another chapter of a life seemingly filled with stories a rare unsentimental glimpse of the world as seen by a writer at the beginning of an illustrious career

Saint Joan George Bernard Shaw, 2024-11-24 Saint Joan is a play by George Bernard Shaw about 15th century French military figure Joan of Arc Premiering in 1923 three years after her canonization by the Roman Catholic Church the play dramatises what is known of her life based on the substantial records of her trial Shaw studied the transcripts and decided that the concerned people acted in good faith according to their beliefs Scene I A fine spring morning on the river Meuse between Lorraine and Champagne in the year 1429 A.D. in the castle of Vaucouleurs Captain Robert de Baudricourt a military squire handsome and physically energetic but with no will of his own is disguising that defect in his usual fashion by storming terribly at his steward a trodden worm scanty of flesh scanty of hair who might be any age from 18 to 55 being the sort of man whom age cannot wither because he has never bloomed The two are in a sunny stone chamber on the first floor of the castle At a plain strong oak table seated in chair to match the captain presents his left profile The steward stands facing him at the other side of the table in so deprecatory a stance as his can be called standing The mullioned thirteenth century window is open behind him Near it in the corner is a turret with a narrow arched doorway leading to a winding stair which descends to the courtyard There is a stout fourlegged stool under the table and a wooden chest under the window
