Radical Islam's Rules The Worldwide Spread Of Extreme Sharia Law Radical Islam's Rules:

Radical Islam's Rules Paul Marshall, 2005-02-25 A major feature of the rise of Islamism in the Middle East Asia Africa and parts of the West is the rapid growth of a starkly repressive version of Islamic shari a law often fueled by funds and support from Saudi Arabia The central purpose of Islamists including terrorists is to impose such law in all Muslim lands and then throughout the world in a new Caliphate Despite its importance this worldwide growth of extreme shari a is under documented and little understood By a comparative study over the last twenty five years of Saudi Arabia Iran Pakistan Sudan Nigeria Malaysia and Indonesia this book shows its terrible effects on human rights especially the status of women and religious freedom of Muslims as well as religious minorities and on democracy itself It also shows that such laws are a direct threat to the American interest of advancing democracy and human rights that the United States lacks a policy for dealing with the spread of extreme shari a and concludes with policy recommendations for the United States regarding specific countries confronting extreme shari a

International Law and Muslim States Dawood Hamzah, 2021-08-12 This book analyses the general interaction between international law and Islamic law in the Muslim world today It interrogates factors that often form the root of the tension between the two legal regimes Literalist interpretations of Islamic law and the modern international law s disposition that does not give due consideration to differences among cultures and civilizations are some of these factors This work examines the Saudi Arabia textualist approach to the two primary sources of law in Islam the Qur an and Sunnah and argues that a liberal approach of interpretation has become sine qua non especially now that myriad issues are confronting the Muslim world generally and Saudi Arabia in particular Similarly globalization has generated an unprecedented multi culturalism legal pluralism and trans border interactions in socio economic and political relations Therefore Saudi Arabia as the bastion of Islam and Islamic nations is faced with the imperative of adopting a liberal approach to interpretation of Islamic law with a view to accommodating a wide spectrum of other laws and cultures The book provides a timely examination of the issue of modern Saudi Arabia Islamic legal order vis vis the contemporary concept of international law and international relations in specific areas such as international human rights law and trans national economic matters As such it will be of interest to academics and researchers working in Islamic law international and comparative law human rights law and law and religion

Winning the Unwinnable War Elan Journo, 2009-09-29 Eight years after 9 11 and in the shadow of two protracted U S military campaigns in the Middle East the enemy is not only undefeated but emboldened and resurgent What went wrong and what should we do going forward Winning the Unwinnable War shows how our own policy ideas led to 9 11 and then crippled our response in the Middle East and it makes the case for an unsettling conclusion By subordinating military victory to perverse allegedly moral constraints Washington s policy has undermined our national security Owing to the significant influence of Just War Theory and neoconservatism the Bush administration consciously put the imperative of shielding civilians and bringing them elections above the goal of eliminating real threats to our security Consequently this policy left our enemies stronger and America weaker than before The dominant alternative to Bush esque idealism in foreign policy so called realism has made a strong comeback under the tenure of Barack Obama But this nonjudgmental supposedly practical approach is precisely what helped unleash the enemy prior to 9 11 The message of the essays in this thematic collection is that only by radically re thinking our foreign policy in the Middle East can we achieve victory over the enemy that attacked us on 9 11 We need a new moral foundation for our Mideast policy That new starting point for U S policy is the moral ideal championed by the philosopher Ayn Rand rational self interest Implementing this approach entails objectively defining our national interest as protecting the lives and freedoms of Americans and then taking principled action to safeguard them The book lays out the necessary steps for achieving victory and for securing America s long range interests in the volatile Middle East

Islamic Law in Past and Present Mathias Rohe, 2015-01-27 Islamic Law in Past and Present written by the lawyer and Islamicist Mathias Rohe is the first comprehensive study for decades on Islamic law legal theory reform mechanisms and the application of Islamic law in Islamic countries and the Muslim diaspora It provides information based on an abundance of Oriental and Western sources regarding family and inheritance law contract and economic law penal law constitutional administrative and international law The present situation and law in action are highlighted particularly This includes examples collected during field studies on the application of Islamic law in India Canada and Germany

The Codification of Islamic Criminal Law in the Sudan Olaf Köndgen, 2017-11-01 In The Codification of Islamic Criminal Law in the Sudan Olaf Köndgen offers an in depth analysis of the Sudan s Islamized penal codes of 1983 and 1991 their historical political and juridical context their interpretation in the case law of the Supreme Court and their practical application He examines issues that arise in shar a criminal law including homicide bodily harm unlawful sexual intercourse zin liw rape unfounded accusation of unlawful sexual intercourse qadhf highway robbery ir ba apostasy ridda and alcohol consumption Drawing on a wide range of primary and secondary sources a large number of previously untapped Supreme Court cases and interviews with judges and politicians K ndgen convincingly explains the multiple contradictions and often surprising aspects of one of the Arab world s longest lasting applications of codified shar a criminal law Olaf K ndgen won the DAVO Dissertation Prize 2014 for his Ph D thesis This extremely well documented study represents a milestone for the discussion of Islamic criminal law in the Muslim world as a whole and in the Sudan especially Olaf K ndgen fills an academic void his work deserves the greatest recognition for its extraordinary quality its thoroughness and systematic approach Prof G nter Meyer Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz

Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck, 2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941 79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqa i a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people s tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqa i a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropology Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

Blind Spot Paul A. Marshall, Lela Gilbert, Roberta Green, 2009 Today understanding of religion is essential to understanding many major news stories This book examines how the media frequently miss or misunderstand these stories because they do not take religion seriously and how they misunderstand religion when they do take it seriously To the extent that journalists do not grasp events religious dimensions both global and local the authors argue they are hindered from and sometimes incapable of describing what is happening However on the national level the press is one of the most secular institutions in American society not necessarily contemptuous of serious religion just uncomprehending The essays in this book examine nine specific news stories that were inadequately or incorrectly reported by major news sources because their religious dimension was ignored overlooked or misrepresented These stories range from the 2004 U S presidential elections to Iran Iraq and the papal succession In each case the author demonstrates how the story might have been more effectively reported and concludes with specific suggestions for journalist The authors include both scholars and experienced news analysts Although it will be of particular interest to people of faith the book offers all readers an interesting and balanced analysis of the news media s uneasy relationship with religion and religious issues Political
