Radical Artifice Writing Poetry In The Age Of Media:

Radical Artifice Marjorie Perloff, 1991 Explores the intricate relationships of postmodern poetics to the culture of network television advertising layout and the computer Perloff argues that poetry today like the visual arts and theater is always contaminated by the language of mass media Among the many poets Perloff discusses are John Ashbery George Oppen Susan Howe Clark Coolidge Lyn Hejinian Leslie Scalapino Charles Bernstein Johanna Drucker Steve McCaffery and preeminently John Cage Publisher The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Albena

Lutzkanova-Vassileva, 2016-06-30 This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Albena Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight Poetic Acts & New Media Tom O'Connor, 2006 Poetic Acts New Media advances the fields of literary and new media studies by clarifying boundaries between competing genres and media through the creation of a new artistic genre media poetry This aesthetic mode of expression becoming seeks to transform mass culture our codes of communication by self consciously acknowledging how textual audio and or visual signs are constructed according to their simulation and not their representation This study draws heavily upon literary media theories that intersect with Gilles Deleuze's philosophy of Sense as a simulated power of sensory transformations Media poetry becomes a complex power of Sense by blending conventional mass media codes with poetic simulations that provide alternative forms of creating meaning Poetic Acts New Media specifically examines the works of several poets that exemplify this multi sensory approach to printed text poetry especially Langston Hughes Tony Medina David Wojahn John Kinsella David Trinidad It also analyzes several contemporary films that embody the multi modal logic of media poetry David Lynch's Mullholland Drive Cameron Crowe's Vanilla Sky Spike Jonze's Being John Malkovich In addition this study interprets two influential primetime TV shows as exemplars of media poetry Twin Peaks and Buffy the Vampire Slayer All media poetry regardless of genre or medium allows readers viewers to envision reality production as a rewriteable and poetic enterprise that can productively remediate any transparent abstraction or common sense realism The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States

Textual Practice Terence Hawkes, Jean Howard, 2005-07-19 First published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Narrative and Media Rosemary Huisman, Julian Murphet, Anne Dunn, 2006-01-26 Narrative and Media first published in 2006 applies narrative theory to media texts including film television radio advertising and print journalism Drawing on research in structuralist and post structuralist theory as well as functional grammar and image analysis the book explains the narrative techniques which shape media texts and offers interpretive tools for analysing meaning and ideology Each section looks at particular media forms and shows how elements such as chronology character and focalization are realized in specific texts As the boundaries between entertainment and information in the mass media continue to dissolve understanding the ways in which modes of story telling are seamlessly transferred from one medium to another and the ideological implications of these strategies is an essential aspect of media studies

Contemporary Poets Harold Bloom, 2010 From the modernist explorations of the first half of the 20th century to the diverse styles and practitioners of the 21st century contemporary American poetry has forged a vital and enduring tradition This volume explores the genre s recent history and development as succeeding generations of poets have taken up the American idiom and molded it into their own unique modes of expression This new edition explores contemporary poetry through a selection of critical essays and also features an introductory essay by esteemed professor Harold Bloom

The Poetics of Scale Conrad Steel, 2024-02-19 Since the start of the twentieth century poets have been irresistibly drawn to the image of the poem

as a kind of data handling a way of mediating between the divergent scales of aesthetics and infrastructure language and technology Conrad Steel shows how the history of poetry with its particular formal affordances and the particular hopes and fears we invest it with has always been bound up with our changing logistics of macroscale representation The Poetics of Scale takes us back to the years before the First World War in Paris where the poet Guillaume Apollinaire claimed to have invented a new mode of poetry large enough to take on the challenges of the coming twentieth century This history follows Apollinaire s ideas across the Atlantic and examines how and why his work became such a vital source of inspiration for American poets through the era of intensive American economic expansion and up to the present day Threading together Apollinaire s work in the 1910s with three of his American successors Louis Zukofsky in the 1930s Allen Ginsberg in the 1950s and Alice Notley from the 1970s onward it shows how poetry as a cultural technique became the crucial test case for the scale of our collective imagination Contemporary Irish Women Poets Lucy Collins,2015-09-14 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This study examines the intersection of private and public spheres through the representation of memory in contemporary poetry by Irish women Collins explores how memory shapes creativity in the work of well known poets such as Eavan Boland Eil an N Chuillean in and Medbh McGuckian as well as in that of an exciting group of younger poets This book analyses for the first time the complex responses to the past recorded by contemporary women poets in Ireland and the implications these have for the concept of a national tradition Bookend Joe Amato,1997-07-10 Bookend challenges distinctions between prose and poetry as well as between popular and academic culture embodying a wide array of poetic techniques to argue that form and structure are themselves essential to artistic and cultural meaning It critiques the current media environs a hybrid reality in which the individual encounters his or her public and private selves in the midst of a crisis of values Each of the five anatomies represents both a personal and a local account of where the author finds himself in social and educational terms and an attempt is made throughout to situate this individual experience against a global imperative Mass Media James B. Martin,2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes Architectures of Poetry ,2021-09-06 Architectures of Poetry is the first comprehensive accounting of the currently intense dialogue between the sister arts of poetry and architecture Refusing to take either term in a metaphoric sense the eleven essays collected in this volume exemplify an exciting methodological direction for work in the humanities a literal wager that is willing to take the unintended suggestions of language as reality At the same time they also provide close readings of the work of a number of important writers In addition to a suite of essays devoted to the team of Arakawa and Madeline Gins chapters focus on figures as diverse as Francesco Borromini Rainer Maria Rilke Stéphane Mallarmé Friedrich Schlegel John Cage and Lyn Hejinian An Echo in the Mountains Nicholas Bradley, 2020-09-23 From the 1960s until his death in 2000 Al Purdy was one of the most prominent writers in Canada famous for his frank language and his boisterous personality He travelled the country and wrote about its people and places from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island A central figure in the CanLit explosion of the sixties and seventies Purdy has been called the best the most and the last Canadian poet But Purdy's Canada no longer exists A changing country and shifting attitudes toward Canadian literature demand new perspectives on Purdy's impact and accomplishments An Echo in the Mountains reassesses Purdy's works the shape of his career and his literary legacy grappling with the question of how to read Purdy today a century after his birth and in a new era of Canadian literature Contributors to the volume examine Purdy's critical reception explore little known documents and textual problems and analyze his representations of Canadian history and Indigenous peoples and cultures They show that much remains to be discovered and understood about the poet and his immense body of work The first sustained examination of Al Purdy's works in over a decade An Echo in the Mountains showcases the critical challenges and rewards of rereading an iconic and influential Canadian writer

Warez Martin Paul Eve, 2021 When most people think of piracy they think of BitTorrent and The Pirate Bay These public manifestations of piracy though conceal an elite worldwide underground organized network of pirate groups who specialize in obtaining media music videos games and software before their official sale date and then racing against one another to release the material for free Warez: The Infrastructure and Aesthetics of Piracy is the first scholarly research book about this underground subculture which began life in the pre internet era Bulletin Board Systems and moved to internet File Transfer Protocol servers to sites in the mid to late 1990s The Scene as it is known is highly illegal in almost every aspect of its operations The term Warez itself refers to pirated media a derivative of software Taking a deep dive in the documentary evidence produced by the Scene itself Warez describes the operations and infrastructures an underground culture with its own norms and rules of participation its own forms of sociality and its own artistic forms Even though forms of digital piracy are often framed within ideological terms of equal access to knowledge and culture Eve uncovers in the Warez Scene a culture of competitive ranking and one upmanship that is at odds with the often communalist interpretations of piracy Broad in scope and novel in its approach Warez is indispensable reading for anyone interested in recent developments in digital culture access to knowledge and culture and the infrastructures that support our digital age

Poetic Community Stephen Voynice, 2013-06-17 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women's Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press

networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Voyle offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War s ideological enclosures     Another Language Kornelia Freitag, Katharina Vester, 2008 In an age of globalization computerization and commodification why read poetry It seems ill suited to meet today s challenges Or is it This volume which collects papers and poems read at a conference on British and North American experimental poetry demonstrates the opposite     Imagining Language Jed Rasula, Steve McCaffery, 2001 When works such as Joyce s Finnegans Wake and Stein s Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials Together the writings celebrate the scope and prodigality of linguistic speculation in the West going back to the pre Socratics     The Digital Humanities and Literary Studies Martin Paul Eve, 2022 A short introduction and overview of developing intersections between digital methods and literary studies that offers the best starting place for those who wish to learn more about the possibilities but also the limitations of the digital humanities in the literary space     The Objectivist Nexus Peter Quartermain, Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 1999-07-02 Outstanding poets and critics present cultural readings of the Objectivist poets a group whose works have been largely unexamined
