West Virginia's Traditional Country Music Ivan M. Tribe,Jacob L. Bapst,2015-03-16 West Virginia has been known for a century as a rich repository of traditional country music and musicians Beginning in the mid 1920s phonograph recordings and radios brought this music to a wider audience With the passing of time and the influence of commercialization this music developed into what became first known as hillbilly and then into the more refined country because of its long appeal to those of rural background Although modernization has caused the traditional element to recede considerably much still remains Many folk still cling to the older sounds exemplified by the raw traditionalists and the neo traditional bluegrass style that emerged in the 1940s From the earliest recording artists such as the Tweedy Brothers and David Miller who was blind to contemporary stars like Kathy Mattea and Brad Paisley West Virginians and others have held their musicians in high esteem

top five that year The show then declined in popularity moved from CBS to NBC in 1953 slowly rose back to the top In its glory days of the 1960s it became an hour long show and finished at number two in two different years The cancellation of the show by CBS in 1970 despite its place in the top 10 was a surprise the last season back with NBC was a failure
