Angels Plot of Tuam's Mother and Baby Home What followed would rock the last vestiges of Catholic Ireland enrage an increasingly secularised nation and lead to a Commission of Inquiry In The Adoption Machine Paul Jude Redmond Chairperson of the Coalition of Mother and Baby Homes Survivors who himself was born in the Castlepollard Home candidly reveals the shocking history of one of the worst abuses of Church power since the foundation of the Irish State From Bessboro Castlepollard and Sean Ross Abbey to St Patrick's and Tuam a dark shadow was cast by the collusion between Church and State in the systematic repression of women and the wilful neglect of illegitimate babies resulting in the deaths of thousands It was Paul s exhaustive research that widened the global media s attention to all the homes and revealed Tuam as just the tip of the iceberg of the horrors that lay beneath He further reveals the vast profits generated by selling babies to wealthy adoptive parents and details how infants were volunteered to a pharmaceutical company for drug trials without the consent of their natural mothers Interwoven throughout is Paul's poignant and deeply personal journey of discovery as he attempts to find his own natural mother The Adoption Machine exposes this dark history of Ireland's shameful and secret past and the efforts to bring it into the light It is a history from which accessible history of Travelers in Twentieth century Screening Contemporary Irish Fiction and Drama Marc C. Conner, Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2022-09-16 Ireland In this book each chapter explores significant Irish texts in their literary cultural and historical contexts With an introduction that establishes the multiple critical contexts for Irish cinema literature and their adaptive textual worlds the volume addresses some of the most popular and important late 20th Century and 21st Century works that have had an impact on the Irish and global cinema and literary landscape A remarkable series of acclaimed and profitable domestic productions during the past three decades has accompanied while chronicling Ireland's struggle with self identity national consciousness and cultural expression such that the story of contemporary Irish cinema is in many ways the story of the young nation s growth pains and travails Whereas Irish literature had long stood as the nation s foremost artistic achievement it is not too much to say that film now rivals literature as Ireland's key form of cultural expression. The proliferation of successful screen versionings of Irish fiction and drama shows how intimately the contemporary Irish cinema is tied to the project of both understanding and complicating even denying a national identity that has undergone radical change during the past three decades This present volume is the first to present a collective accounting of that productive synergy which has seen so much of contemporary Irish literature transferred to the screen Earth Voices Whispering Gerald Dawe, 2008 In the first half of the 20th century the men and women of Ireland experienced the brutal realities of a succession of wars from the unrelenting casualties of WW1 to the domestic upheavals of the 1916 Rising and the Irish Civil War from the romantic idealism of the Spanish Civil War to the unimaginable horrors of WW2 Earth Voices Whispering gathers together for the very first time a wide range of poetic voices that chart the human experiences of these wars compiled and edited by Belfast born poet and senior lecturer in Trinity College Dublin Gerald Dawe Featuring over three hundred poems by celebrated poets such as C S Lewis AE W B Yeats Patrick Kavanagh and Seamus Heaney and including new poems by Derek Mahon and Eilean N Chuilleanain the anthology records the thoughts and experiences of poets as soldiers patriots observers protestors medics and mourners From patriotism to anger passion to compassion hope to regret this groundbreaking new anthology embraces the complex reality of a rich unique and historically overlooked period in Irish poetry The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden,2009-05-07 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to investigate the ways in which this exciting discipline is developing
