Rahell Speaks His Truth:

Rahell Speaks His Truth Jeremy A. Riley, 2002-09 Whispering the Word Jacqueline E. Lapsley, 2005-11-03 Many Christian feminists wonder if they can simultaneously maintain their commitment to principles of gender equality and their faith in the Scriptures particularly the Old Testament Writing in response to feminist biblical scholars who approach the Old Testament with a hermeneutic of suspicion Jacqueline Lapsley offers Christian feminists strategies to hear the subtle ideas and voices of the less powerful within the Old Testament texts Reading and interpreting a number of Old Testament narratives in which women are prominent Lapsley considers how these stories may reflect God's word for us In doing so she demonstrates how the narrative often attempts to shape the moral response of the reader by revealing the intricacy and complexity of the moral world evoked In this gentle shaping of the reader's ethical sensibilities she argues is where God may be whispering a word for us

In Praise of the Minor Character Grace Pregent,2023-10-19 Minor characters are everywhere in novels They linger with readers and invite us into the untold aspects of their lives They fill a text s landscape bringing depth to its ecosystem and encourage us to shift our thoughts from textual centers to margins and even to consider the minor elements of our own experiences Minor characters challenge us to hold oppositional perspectives rethink interdependencies and reimagine textual and lived relationships In many ways we identify with minor characters and yet we lack a nuanced way of understanding them This work is about minor characters and the qualities of minorness in Victorian novels It offers casual readers and scholars alike a method of reading and rereading for minor characters that extends across genres Voyages Out, Voyages Home Jane de Gay, Marion Dell, 2018-09-15 The Eleventh Annual Conference on Virginia Woolf was the first to be held outside the United States This voyage across the Atlantic was the stimulus for an exploration of themes of voyaging in Woolf's works from her interests in travel and cross cultural encounters to her imaginative voyages between texts and genres and the subsequent voyages her texts have made into the work of others Published nine years after the conference this selection of papers by international scholars fills a gap in the chronicles of the Woolf conference For this reason several papers feature an Afterword outlining developments in research since 2001 and the book also includes a Bibliography of Publications Arising from the Conference facilitating access to research presented at Bangor but published elsewhere Another special feature of the volume is the tribute to one of the keynote speakers Julia Briggs who died in 2007 in which Beth Rigel Daugherty communicates the gratitude of the scholarly community for Julia's many contributions to Woolf studies This welcome publication is a fitting record of our collective voyage as Woolf scholars Searching for Sunday Rachel Held Evans, 2015-04-14 Find hope and grace when you are feeling cynical about the church and faith Are you struggling to connect with your church community Do you find yourself questioning the core beliefs that you once held dear Searching for Sunday from New York Times bestselling author Rachel Held Evans is a heartfelt ode to the past and a hopeful gaze into the future of what it means to be a part of the modern church Like millions of her millennial peers Rachel Held Evans didn't want to go to church anymore The hypocrisy the politics the gargantuan building budgets the scandals to her it was beginning to feel like church culture was too far removed from Jesus Yet despite her cynicism and misgivings something kept drawing Evans back to church Evans found herself wanting to better understand the church and find her place within it so she set out on a new adventure Within the pages of Searching for Sunday Evans catalogs her journey as she loves leaves and finds the church once again Evans tells the story of her faith through the lens of seven sacraments of the Catholic church baptism confession holy orders communion confirmation the anointing of the sick and marriage to teach us the essential truths about what she's learned along the way including Faith isn't just meant to be believed it's meant to be lived and shared in community Christianity isn't a kingdom for the worthy it's a kingdom for the hungry the broken and the imperfect The countless and beautiful ways that God shows up in the ordinary parts of our daily lives Searching for Sunday will help you unpack the messiness of community teaching us that by overcoming our cynicism we can all find hope grace love and somewhere in between church The Stories We Tell Mike Cosper, 2014-08-31 The average American watches 5 hours of TV every day Collectively we spend roughly 30 billion on movies each year Simply put we're entertainment junkies But can we learn something from our insatiable addiction to stories Mike Cosper thinks so From horror flicks to rom coms the tales we tell and the myths we weave inevitably echo the narrative underlying all of history the story of humanity's tragic sin and God's triumphant salvation This entertaining book connects the dots between the stories we tell and the one great Story helping us better understand the longings of the human heart and thoughtfully engage with the movies and TV shows that capture our imaginations Searching for Safe Spaces Myriam Chancy, 1997-09-05 Home Exile Return Words heavy with meaning and passion For Myriam Chancy these three themes animate the lives and writings of dispossessed Afro Caribbean women Understanding exile as flight from political persecution or types of oppression that single out women Chancy concentrates on diasporic writers and filmmakers who depict the vulnerability of women to poverty and exploitation in their homelands and their search for safe refuge These Afro Caribbean feminists probe the complex issues of race nationality gender sexuality and class that limit women's lives They portray the harsh conditions that all too commonly drive women into exile depriving them of security and a sense of belonging in their adopted countries the United States Canada or England As they rework traditional literary forms artists such as Joan Riley Beryl Gilroy M Noubese Philip Dionne Brand Makeda Silvera Audre Lorde Rosa Guy Michelle Cliff and Mari Chauvet give voice to Afro Caribbean women's alienation and longing to return home Whether their return is realized geographically or metaphorically the poems fiction and film considered in this book speak boldly of self definition and transformation The New York Times Book Review ,1996
