Regulation of Railway Rates United States Congress, 2017-10-30 Excerpt from Regulation of Railway Rates Hearings Before the Committee on Interstate Commerce United States Senate in Special Session Pursuant to Senate Resolution No 288 Fifty Eighth Congress Third Session April 17 1905 Sixth For the hearing by such commission of complaints made either by such railroad corporations or other party at interest regarding the decision of any rate classification order or regulation adopted by such commission and for decision thereon. About the Publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com. This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works. Railroads William Zebina Ripley, 2023-07-18 William Zebina Ripley's influential book explores the economics of the railroad industry with a particular focus on the regulation of rates by government agencies. Ripley argues that the existing regulatory framework is inadequate and that railroads should be granted more autonomy in setting rates. He also offers a historical analysis of the industry's development and an assessment of its future prospects. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the
