consciously and sometimes unconsciously the writer implies an answer to one or more of the questions that any concern with an animal must raise such as What is an animal's place in nature Are they here primarily to serve as a food source Do they possess inherent rights and privileges How are they alike or different from humans The answers to these questions are as varied as the authors Each narrative description or exposition contributes something to an overall picture of human beings' relations with and attitudes toward the animal kingdom It is a remarkable conclusion illustrated by Krutch's chronological arrangement within categories that almost every major attitude and activity that has ever existed concerning animals still exists today even though there has been a drift in certain directions Although the editor fairly represents the opposing view his sympathies lie with those for whom the animal world embodies something to be loved and learned from rather than merely to be studied or exploited Fodor's Caribbean 2010 Fodor's, 2009-08 Maps of each Caribbean island and the Caribbean area accompany travel tips and a brief history of the islands The Journal of the Bombay Natural History Society Bombay Natural History Society, 2005 From Donkey's Mouth and Other Short Stories Subba Rao, 2013-05-22 In the collection of short stories entitled From Donkey's Mouth the author assumes the name of Juggernaut to share his travel experiences on the Big Island Hawaii and living in India Caribbean and the United States In some stories as a bystander looking at the events Juggernaut discusses issues with a view that world is what it is with changes hard to come
