artistic career Fassbinder produced more than 40 films and staged 29 plays half of which he had written himself In doing so he not only drew on aesthetic traditions as diverse as the German folk play the American gangster film Hollywood melodrama the Theatre of Cruelty and the French Nouvelle Vague but also worked in three media simultaneously theatre cinema and television It has often been pointed out that this versatility appears to forestall any conceptualisation of Fassbinder s work from the vantage point of its production The present work aims at exactly such a conceptualisation by exploring the interplay between his work for the different media The Relationship between Sound and Image in Rainer Werner Fassbinder's "Die Ehe der Maria Braun" Laura Smith,2015-04-09 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject German Studies Miscellaneous grade 78 University of Birmingham course BA Modern Languages language English abstract The collision of sound and image in Fassbinder s Die Ehe der Maria Braun provides an on screen representation of the relationship between public and private life in the film The contrast created by this collision is a distancing technique which encourages the audience to consider the implications of ignoring the political public world at the time of the Wirtschaftswunder and in their own time This essay aims to demonstrate the way in which Fassbinder achieves this through his manipulation of sound and image specifically examining the open and closing credits the radio broadcasts of Konrad Adenauer s speeches Oswald s piano playing and the final radio broadcast concerning the 1954 World Cup Fassbinder in Review Paul Foss,1983-01-01 Fassbinder 1st American Ed ,1981
