Zeng, 2010-09-27 Furthering the scholarship on writers and artists as diverse as Lord Byron Edvard Munch Sylvia Plath and Jorge Luis Borges Zeng probes the semiotics of exile In artistic traditions the world over exile exerts a potent and complex mythmaking power whether it is manifest as a geographical dislocation or as a sense of cultural or psychological alienation Bluebeard Casie Hermansson, 2009 Bluebeard is the main character in one of the grisliest and most enduring fairy tales A serial wife murderer he keeps a horror chamber in which remains of all his previous matrimonial victims are secreted from his latest bride She is given all the keys but forbidden to open one door of the castle This is a major study of the tale and its many variants in English from the 18th and 19th century chapbooks children's toybooks pantomimes melodramas and circus spectaculars to the 20th century in music literature art film and theatre The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza, 2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens's A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon's Jr's The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby's About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding's Bridget Jones's Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work's title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation's of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered Fictional Authors, Imaginary Audiences Bonnie S. McDougall, 2003 The authors and audiences for 20th century Chinese literature especially fiction are examined in a fresh light While modern Chinese fictions are imaginary in that they do not constitute reliable portraits of Chinese life they offer insights into the writers themselves and their implied audiences Secrets Beyond the Door Maria Tatar, 2006-10-03 Maria Tatar analyses the many forms the tale of Bluebeard's wife has taken over time showing how artists have taken the Bluebeard theme and revived it with their own signature twists Contemporary Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu, 2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages. It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core English literary domain. The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels. This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process, translation paratexts, and the roles of translation agents. Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic, literary, and cultural challenges within translation. It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women's writing, science fiction, and Internet literature. The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature. Beyond its literary implications, the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors. It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government, which aims to reshape China's image and bolster the nation's soft power through literary translation. This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies, comparative literature, and Chinese studies.

Madwoman On The Bridge And Other Stories Su Tong, 2009-09-15. Set during the fall out of the Cultural Revolution, these bizarre and delicate stories capture the collision of the old China of vanished dynasties with communism and today's tiger economy. The mad woman on the bridge wears a historical gown which she refuses to take off. In the height of summer, she stands madly on the bridge. Until a young female doctor, bewitched by the beauty of the mad woman's dress, plots to take it from her with tragic consequences.

Translating Chinese Fiction Tan Yesheng, 2024-06-28. Drawing on the cognitive-translatological paradigm, this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re-examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction. By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space, the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered. The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross-validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross-cultural communication scenarios. Based on the cognitive construction model of translation, the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions, narrative styles, contextual and cultural frames, readership categories, and metaphorical models of translation. It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators' cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem. The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies. It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics, literary studies, and intercultural communication studies.

Adapted for the Screen Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2010-04-30. Contemporary Chinese films are popular worldwide, but a key reason for their success has gone unnoticed: many of the films are adapted from brilliant literary works. This book is the first to put these landmark films in the context of their literary origins and explore how the best Chinese directors adapt fictional narratives and styles for film Hsiu Chuang Deppman unites aesthetics with history in her argument that the rise of cinema in China Hong Kong and Taiwan in the late 1980s was partly fueled by burgeoning literary movements Fifth Generation director Zhang Yimou's highly acclaimed films Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and To Live are built on the experimental works of Mo Yan Su Tong and Yu Hua respectively Hong Kong new wave's Ann Hui and Stanley Kwan capitalized on the irresistible visual metaphors of Eileen Chang's postrealism Hou Xiaoxian's new Taiwan cinema turned to fiction by Huang Chunming and Zhu Tianwen for fine grained perspectives on class and gender relations Delving equally into the individual approaches of directors and writers Deppman initiates readers into the exciting possibilities emanating from the world of Chinese cinema The seven in depth studies include a diverse array of forms cinematic adaptation of literature literary adaptation of film auto adaptation and non narrative adaptation and a variety of genres martial arts melodrama romance autobiography documentary drama Complementing this formal diversity is a geographical range that far exceeds the cultural linguistic and physical boundaries of China The directors represented here also work in the U S and Europe and reflect the growing international resources of Chinese language cinema With her sophisticated blend of stylistic and historical analyses Deppman brings much needed nuance to current conversations about the politics of gender class and race in the work of the most celebrated Chinese writers and directors Her pioneering study will appeal to all readers general and academic who have an interest in Chinese literature cinema and culture
