Katherine Bullock, 2007-01-01 Until now the bulk of the literature about the veil has been written by outsiders who do not themselves veil This literature often assumes a condescending tone about veiled women assuming that they are making uninformed decisions choices about veiling makes them subservient to a patriarchal culture and religion Rethinking Muslim Women and the Veil offers an alternative viewpoint based on the thoughts and experiences of Muslim women themselves This is the first time a clear and concise book length argument has been made for the compatibility between veiling and modernity Katherine Bullock uncovers positive aspects of the veil that are frequently not perceived by outsiders Rethinking Muslim Women and the Veil looks at the colonial roots of the negative Western stereotype of the veil It presents interviews with Muslim women to discover their thoughts and experiences with the veil in Canada The book also offers a positive theory of veiling The author argues that in consumer capitalist cultures women can find wearing the veil a liberation from the stifling beauty game that promotes unsafe and unhealthy ideal body images for women This book also includes an extensive bibliography on topics related to Muslim women and the veil

Women Beyond Belief Karen L. Garst, 2016-10-01 Women have made great strides toward equal rights over the past hundred years especially in the West But when considering the ongoing fight over reproductive rights and equal pay and the prevalence of sexual violence and domestic abuse it is clear that a significant gap still exists With scripture often cited as justification for the marginalization of women it is time to acknowledge that one of the final barriers to full equality for women is religion Much has been written about the great strides humankind has made in knocking down many long held religious beliefs whether related to the age of the earth or the origin of the species But religion s negative impact on women has been less studied and discussed This book is a step toward changing that Twenty two women from a variety of backgrounds and Judeo Christian traditions share their personal stories about how they came to abandon organized religion and how they discovered life after moving away from religious and supernatural beliefs Their words serve both as a celebration of all who have taken similar steps under the weight of thousands of years of religious history and as a source of inspiration for those individuals especially women who have deep doubts about their own belief traditions but who don t yet know how to embrace life without falling back on religion

The Religious History of American Women Catherine A. Brekus, 2009-11-13 More than a generation after the rise of women s history alongside the feminist movement it is still difficult observes Catherine Brekus to locate women in histories of American religion Mary Dyer a Quaker who was hanged for heresy Lizzie Robinson a former slave and laundress who sold Bibles door to door Sally Priesand a Reform rabbi Estela Ruiz who saw a vision of the Virgin Mary how do these women s stories change our understanding of American religious history and American women s history In this provocative collection of twelve essays contributors explore how considering the religious history of American women can transform our dominant historical narratives Covering a variety of topics including Mormonism the women s rights movement Judaism witchcraft trials the civil rights movement Catholicism everyday religious life Puritanism African American women s activism and the Enlightenment the volume enhances our understanding of both religious history and women s history Taken together these essays sound the call for a new more inclusive history Contributors Ann Braude Harvard Divinity School Catherine A Brekus University of Chicago Divinity School Anthea D Butler University of Rochester Emily Clark Tulane University Kathleen Sprows Cummings University of Notre Dame Amy Koehlinger Florida State University Janet Moore Lindman Rowan University Susanna Morrill Lewis and Clark College Kristy Nabhan Warren Augustana College Pamela S Nadell American University Elizabeth Reis University of Oregon Marilyn J Westerkamp University of California Santa Cruz An
