The long awaited literary biography of the supreme poets poet John Clare 1793 1864 is the greatest labouring class poet that England has ever produced No one has ever written more powerfully of nature of a rural childhood and of the alienated and unstable self but until now he has never been the subject of a comprehensive literary biography Here at last is his full story told by the light of his voluminous work his birth in poverty his work as an agricultural labourer his burgeoning promise as a writer cultivated under the gaze of rival patrons then his moment of fame in the company of John Keats and the toast of literary London and finally his decline into mental illness and his last years confined in asylums Clare's ringing voice quick-witted passionate vulnerable courageous emerges in generous quotation from his letters journals autobiographical writings and his poems as Jonathan Bate the celebrated scholar of Shakespeare brings the complex man his beloved work and his ribald world vividly to life

A Disappointing Truth Sarudzai Mubvakure, 2008-08-14 The life of two black girls in 1960s Colonial Zimbabwe changes when they catch the eye of two English migrants who are in the country for the good life When the girls become embroiled in betrayal love and rape their only hope for justice lies in what was seen by a 10 year old boy who has been terrorised into silence Years later Sarah Witt a British business woman struggling with internal complexities goes on a soul searching trip to Zimbabwe for answers about the mysterious past of her deceased parents As an unexpected shock connection between Sarah and the two girls slowly unravels she has no idea that her efforts are being thwarted by an organized crime syndicate The English Boys Club In this story with the cinematic backdrop of Zimbabwe's history can the truth lead to healing
