Relating to the Unification of South Africa Arthur Percival Newton, 1924
 This is a two volumes in one collection of documents and official materials that illustrate the process of the South African consolidation. The selection is based on the author's interest in bringing to light documents that have a thread of connection and demonstrate an episode of the British Empire that has not been fully presented in England. The materials date from 1858 to 1905.

Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, 1924 The Customs Union Issue Jacob Viner, 2014-01-03 Jacob Viner

s The Customs Union Issue was originally published in 1950 by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. It set the framework for the contemporary debate over the benefits or otherwise of preferential trading agreements such as the European Union, NAFTA, and APEC. Viner developed the concepts of trade creation and diversion in this work as he pioneered the analysis of the global politics of trade agreements. This revival of Viner's classic work includes an introduction that places this book in the context of his own intellectual development and the economic and political situation of the post WWII world. The introduction also traces the reception of Viner's work and discusses its continuing relevance for international economists, political scientists, and historians.

Murder at Morija Tim Couzens, 2005. Who killed Jacottet? Drawing on the great tradition of the locked room detective story, Tim Couzens sets out eighty years after the event to solve the crime.
