Traveling Backward Elayne Wareing Fitzpatrick, 2009-07-06 TRAVELING BACKWARD is a highly original philosophic romp beyond the youth of old age with a quixotic journalist turned mom turned academic turned peasant It's a kind of light-hearted guide to the wisdom of the ages from Socrates to existentialism and beyond gleaned during a struggle to recover the images that first touched her heart and to answer two questions Who am I really Where does the world come from It's a colorful occasionally poignant journey that could help you look at life through the reverent eyes of a child again GLIMPSES OF TRAVELING BACKWARD You two remind me of Peter Pan Trouble is I'm not sure which one of you is Peter Pan Well I was taken aback But my mate took action Muttering something negative about fairy stories he headed for the door and disappeared down the hall I started to follow him but changed my mind Instead I headed for the public library to reread Peter Pan Had I missed something Elayne Wareing Fitzpatrick Human life indeed all life is poetry It's we who live it unconsciously day by day Yet in its inviolable wholeness it lives us it composes us We are works of art but we are not the artist Dare everything need nothing Lou Andreas Salome I relate to Andreas Salome's passionate struggle for truth to her ultimate reverence for all life and to her desire to enjoy intellectual friendships with a variety of men free of sexual overtones Fitzpatrick I was discovering that deep down I didn't really take to popular culture crowds and bustling cities regardless of my curiosity regardless of my journalist's delight in writing about all of it Fitzpatrick If you can't change the world change worlds St Francis of Assisi If I were ever to choose a place away from my country it would surely be a Greek island outside

Athens In Greece I feel completely at home Maybe that s because as the poet Shelley said We re all Greeks Our laws our literature our religion our arts have their roots in Greece Fitzpatrick Back straight and head held high he would place his left arm on my right shoulder snap his fingers and lead me in the graceful deliberate movements of the Zorba dance accompanied by a recording of Mozart s 40th played on the bouzouki This against a backdrop of tinkling goat bells and singing monks gathered in a distant church Fitzpatrick Many of the highs and lows in my life have resulted from conflict born of the struggle between my own strong loving nesting needs and my equally strong needs for freedom to think to adventure to discover to express myself Fitzpatrick All parts of this one organic whole this one God are different expressions of the same energy and they are all in communication with each other influencing each other therefore parts of one organic whole Robinson Jeffers How did matter happen that makes the stars and cool planets and living beings And how did the space happen that contains the stars and planets Much is still very hypothetical Much is still unknown Much we will never know Life is struggle pain and suffering But it is also extraordinarily glorious creativity Dr Kai Woehler Like Socrates I ve experienced an inner voice that usually let s me know when I m about to go off track and I ve come to believe with Kant in a moral law within Fitzpatrick Nature wonderful and awe inspiring as it is can t participate in a verbal dialogue can t exchange and explore ideas with the human mind We can relate to the animals the birds the insects the fish and the flora with our most primitive instincts and feel joy spiritual ecstasy in so recognizing our kinship Yet nothing in Nature can compare with the human need for a warm

Cross-Examined Films Matthew King,2017-12-06 After spending nearly a quarter of a lifetime watching popular and independent films Matthew King RN makes a point to criticize the Christian church for its lack of engagement with films He believes that the lack of engagement and the strong denunciation of films only because of their sexual or violent content has lost an entire generation because of the inability to speak the millennial language of popular Hollywood films With searing prose and biting confrontation King attempts to engage films through the lens of theology philosophy and political analysis to assist the church in identifying positive as well as negative examples of the topics within to better engage an entire generation Through this investigation Christians and non Christians alike will be both enlightened and surprised at what popular films have unconsciously taught them from a young age
