Republic of Texas: Poll Lists for 1846 Marion Day Mullins, 1974 Arranged alphabetically this work lists the names and counties of residence of approximately 18 000 Texas taxpayers A poll tax of one dollar was levied on every white male resident over the age of twenty one and on women who were heads of household By 1846 when Texas became the thirty sixth state in the Union there were sixty seven county governments already organized as functioning units of the state yet no authorized census of the state was undertaken until 1850 This 1846 poll list compiled from the original tax rolls housed in the Texas State Archives is actually the nearest thing we have to a complete census of the period Shepherd's Empire Charles Wayland Towne, Edward Norris Wentworth, 1945 When the main crop on their West Texas farm fails a young girl hopes to prevent the sale of her beloved horse as she tries to help her parents raise money for a due bank note Mexico To-day Thomas Unett Brocklehurst, 1883 From Patmos to the Barrio David A. Sánchez, Sanchez s subject is the power of imperial myths and the subversive power unleashed when resistance movements take over those myths for their own purposes Moving from John of Patmos s inversion of Roman imperial mythology in Revelation 12 to the indigenous appropriation of Spanish symbolism and mythology drawn from Revelation 12 in 17th century Mexico Sanchez then explores the continuing power of the Virgin of Guadalupe La Guadalupea to inspire movements for a better society in our own day From Patmos to the Barrio reveals new insights into the biblical Apocalypse of John and the enduring power of its legacy down to the present day as well as translations of two important 17th century documents concerning La Guadalupe Luis Laso de la Vega's Huei tlamahuaoltica and Miguel Sanchez's Imagen de la Virgen Maria. Also included are images of La Guadalupe in the murals of East Los Angeles. Past and Present in Medieval Spain Peter Linehan, 2024-10-28 The studies included in this selection the opening two being published for the first time are concerned with various aspects of the history of Christian Spain between the 6th century and the 14th. A recurrent theme is that of the invention of the past of the manner in which for reasons which have seemed good to them at different times and places from Toledo in the 1240s to Cambridge in the 1920s men have sought to appropriate and recolonise that past. Three more technical articles on the subject of 13th century papal diplomatic in a Spanish setting illustrate the related activity of the invention of the future as reflected in the activity of the agents or proctors and others whose services were retained in order to ensure that it was their employer's particular view of the present that prevailed. Les tudes comprises dans cette s lection dont deux paraissent ici pour la premi re fois traitent des diff rents aspects de l histoire de l Espagne chr tienne entre le 6e et le 14e si cle. Un th me fr quent est celui de l invention du pass la fa on dont diff rentes poques et diff rents endroits de Tol de en 1240 Cambridge en 1920 et pour des raisons qui lui semblent tre les bonnes l tre humain s est efforc de s approprier et de reconqu rir le pass. Trois articles d ordre plus techniques sur la diplomatie papale au 13e si cle dans un cadre espagnol illustrent l activit attenante qu tait l invention de l avenir telle qu elle se traduisait au travers de l action d agents de fond s de pouvoir et autres dont les services taient requis afin que la vision du pr sent de leurs employeurs pr vale. The Cult of the Virgin Mary Michael P. Carroll, 2021-01-12 Tracing devotion to Mary to psychological and historical processes that began in the fifth century Michael Carroll answers intriguing questions: What explains the many reports of Marian apparitions over the centuries? Why is Mary both Virgin and Mother simultaneously? Why has the Marian cult always been stronger in certain geographical areas than in others? The first half of the book presents a psychoanalytic explanation for the most salient facts about the Marian cult and the second addresses the question of Marian apparitions. World Oceans David E. Newton, 2021-02-15 World Oceans A Reference Handbook offers an in depth discussion of the world's oceans. It discusses the marine life that is dependent on the sea as well as the problems threatening the health of the ocean and its wildlife. World Oceans A Reference Handbook opens with an overview of the history of human knowledge and understanding of the oceans and cryosphere along with related scientific technological social political and other factors. The second chapter presents and discusses about a dozen major problems facing the Earth's oceans today along with possible solutions. The third chapter provides interested individuals with an opportunity to express their thoughts and ideas on today's ocean issues and remaining chapters provide additional resources such as a bibliography a chronology and a glossary to assist the reader in her or his further study of the issue. Where most books for young adults learning about world oceans take a purely expository treatment this book provides readers with additional information as well as resources allowing them to learn more and inform further study of the subject.

The Arts of Encounter Catherine Infante, 2022-03-01 Images of crosses the Virgin Mary and Christ among other devotional objects pervaded nearly every aspect of public and private life in early modern Spain but they were also a point of contention between Christian and Muslim cultures Writers of narrative fiction theatre and poetry were attuned to these debates and religious imagery played an important role in how early modern writers chose to portray relations between Christians and Muslims Drawing on a wide variety of literary genres as well as other textual and visual sources including historical chronicles travel memoirs captives testimonies and paintings Catherine Infante traces the references to religious visual culture and the responses they incited in cross confessional negotiations She reveals some of the anxieties about what it meant to belong to different ethnic or religious communities and how these communities interacted with each other within the fluid boundaries of the Mediterranean world Focusing on the religious image as a point of contact between individuals of diverse beliefs and practices The Arts of Encounter presents an original and necessary perspective on how Christian Muslim relations were perceived and conveyed in print

The Chicano Experience Alfredo Mirandé, 2014-02-28 Mirandé offers a detailed examination of Chicano social history and culture that includes studies of Chicano labor and the economy the Mexican immigrant and the U S Mexico border conflict the evolution of Chicano criminality the American educational system and its impact on Chicano culture the tensions between the institutional Church and Chicanos and the myths and misconceptions of machismo

In Your Eyes I See My Words Pope Francis, 2020-10-27 The homilies and speeches of Archbishop Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio from 2009 through his election as Pope Francis in 2013 These writings provide an intimate glimpse into the theological philosophical scientific and cultural educational currents that forged the steady loving and nurturing leadership style with which Jorge Mario Bergoglio guided the Church in Buenos Aires Argentina That style has now done the same for the Church from Rome a Church rocked by financial and moral scandals and a world shaken by the worst global pandemic in a century These writings were kneaded a word he uses when talking about the work of molding the souls and character of youth and seminarians in the relationships he formed in his bus rides to work and in his intense contact with all segments of the population Because of that careful and prayerful process of kneading they have found their full development in Bergoglio's writing as Pope Francis especially in Evangelii gaudium November 2013 Gaudete et exsultate On the call to sanctity March 2018 and his encyclical Laudato si May 2015 In this final volume of Bergoglio's homilies and papers we meet European theologians and thinkers such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Henri de Lubac Bergoglio's friend the Uruguayan philosopher Maritain the literary figure Miguel Angel Asturias and Enrique Santos Discipolo a singer and composer of tangos that decry corruption In a prophetic conclusion the last homily of this volume is an outline of the roadmap Pope Francis has followed throughout his papacy one defined by ongoing love and care for God's people that seeks to spread God's merciful anointing to those living on the margins of life
