Findon Fair who had come from the east by Lewes with sheep, and who had in his eyes that reminiscence of horizons which makes the eyes of shepherds and of mountaineers different from the eyes of other men.

Briggs, 2021-10-26 There are few biblical texts more familiar to Christians than Psalm 23 The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want It is one of the Bible s most popular passages retaining a special place in ministry and giving hope to the burdened Internationally recognized Old Testament scholar Richard Briggs helps readers understand the power and vision of Psalm 23 He offers a close word by word and phrase by phrase reading of this classic and beloved text showing how it can speak afresh to the life of the church today Briggs explores the reception of Psalm 23 down through the ages covers background issues and examines the ways the psalm addresses practical issues such as stress death enemies and hope The book helps reconnect the Christian church to the Old Testament making it perfect for sermon preparation and small group study The Touchstone Texts series addresses key Bible passages making high quality biblical scholarship accessible for the church The series editor is Stephen B Chapman Duke Divinity School Hyperobjects Timothy Morton, 2013-10-01 Having set global warming in irreversible motion we are facing the possibility of ecological catastrophe But the environmental emergency is also a crisis for our philosophical habits of thought confronting us with a problem that seems to defy not only our control but also our understanding Global warming is perhaps the most dramatic example of what Timothy Morton calls hyperobjects entities of such vast temporal and spatial dimensions that they defeat traditional ideas about what a thing is in the first place In this book Morton explains what hyperobjects are and their impact on how we think how we coexist with one another and with nonhumans and how we experience our politics ethics and art Moving fluidly between philosophy science literature visual and conceptual art and popular culture the book argues that hyperobjects show that the end of the world has already occurred in the sense that concepts such as world nature and even environment are no longer a meaningful horizon against which human events take place Instead of inhabiting a world we find ourselves inside a number of hyperobjects such as climate nuclear weapons evolution or relativity Such objects put unbearable strains on our normal ways of reasoning Insisting that we have to reinvent how we think to even begin to comprehend the world we now live in Hyperobjects takes the first steps outlining a genuinely postmodern ecological approach to thought and action Ecclesial Futures: Volume 1, Issue 2 Nigel Rooms, Steve Taylor, 2020-12-24 Ecclesial Futures publishes original research and theological reflection on the development and transformation of local Christian communities and the systems that support them as they join in the mission of God in the world We understand local Christian communities broadly to include traditional parish churches and independent local churches religious communities and congregations new church plants so called fresh expressions of church
