biographies of Holmes Watson and Conan Doyle history lovers will revel in the wealth of Victorian literary and cultural details Sherlockian fanatics will puzzle over tantalizing new theories art lovers will thrill to the 450 plus illustrations which make this the most lavishly illustrated edition of the Holmes tales ever produced The New Annotated Sherlock Holmes illuminates the timeless genius of Arthur Conan Doyle for an entirely new generation of readers The Men Who Were Sherlock Holmes Daniel Smith,2024-05-09 In 1893 young army officer Cecil Hambrough was murdered at the sprawling Ardlamont estate in Scotland unleashing one of the most gripping court cases Victorian Britain had ever known Even more remarkably the case brought together two pioneering forensic experts Joseph Bell and Henry Littlejohn two men upon whom Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes happened to be based It is their involvement in the Ardlamont affair that reveals how the world's most famous detective came to be the world's of crime fiction and crime fact were about to collide spectacularly In this extraordinary book Daniel Smith outlines the key roles of the two men whose powers of deduction had so inspired Doyle and explores the real world origins of Sherlock Holmes through the prism of a mystery as engrossing as any case the Great Detective ever tackled The Uncollected Cases of Sherlock Holmes Geoff Finch,2022-05-06 The Uncollected Cases of Sherlock Holmes presents eight new stories about Holmes which set the great detective against the background of Victorian England an era of enormous progress in science transport and medicine but which also witnessed a surge in urban poverty prostitution and imperial adventurism Each of the stories in this collection engages with an aspect of this background In The Sicilian Defence Holmes comes to the aid of a disgraced army veteran who has fallen in love with a Sudanese woman and incurred the wrath of her father whilst in The Archaeopteryx Holmes has to recover an important fossil which has been stolen from the Natural History Museum In The Missing Heir Holmes is asked to find the heir to a great fortune considered by his family to be mentally unstable and in The Dunwich Ghost he investigates the plight of an old army colleague of Watson's who is haunted by the ghost of his dead wife The Holmes who emerges from these stories justifies the description of him by Watson as the best and wisest of men Whether investigating a gang of forgers securing justice for a murdered prostitute or facing a Russian spy we see his ferocious intelligence alongside a strong humanitarian bias Despite his idiosyncracies his solitary temperament his melancholia and addiction to cocaine he is both a man of his time and a man for our time The author of this volume is Geoffrey Finch an Associate Lecturer in English Language at the Open University Geoffrey has taught at Universities in Africa New Zealand and the UK He lives in Greater London with his wife and their cat Humphrey who makes a guest appearance in the fifth story The Cathedral Cat Whatever Happened to Sherlock Holmes Robert S. Paul,1991 Robert S Paul suggests that the reason detective fiction has won legions of readers may be that the writer of detective fiction without conscious intent appeals directly to those moral and spiritual roots of society unconsciously affirmed and endorsed by the readers Because detective stories deal with crime and punishment they cannot help dealing implicitly with theological issues such as the reality of good and evil the recognition that humankind has the potential for both the nature of evidence truth and error the significance of our existence in a rational order and hence the reality of truth and the value of the individual in a civilized society Paul argues that the genre traces its true beginning to the Enlightenment and documents two related but different reactions to the theological issues involved first a line of writers who are generally positive in relation to their cultural setting such as Edgar Allan Poe Wilkie Collins Conan Doyle and second a reactionary strain critical of the prevailing culture that begins in William Godwin s Caleb Williams and continues through the anti heroic writers like Ars ne Lupin to Raymond Chandler Dashiell Hammett and John MacDonal
