Blaine Baker, Richard Janda, 2019-05-30 Gerald Le Dain 1924 2007 was appointed to the Supreme Court of Canada in 1984 This collectively written biography traces fifty years of his steady creative and conciliatory involvement with military service the legal academy legislative reform university administration and judicial decision making This book assembles contributions from the in house historian of the law firm where Le Dain first practised from students and colleagues in the law schools where he taught from a research associate in his Commission of Inquiry into the non medical use of drugs from two of his successors on the Federal Court of Appeal and from three judicial clerks to Le Dain at the Supreme Court of Canada Also reproduced here is a transcript of a recent CBC documentary about his 1988 forced resignation from the Supreme Court following a short term depressive illness with commentary from Le Dain s family and co workers Gerald Le Dain was a tireless worker and a highly respected judge In a series of essays that cover the different periods and dimensions of his career Tracings of Gerald Le Dain's Life in the Law is an important and compassionate account of one man's commitment to the law in Canada Contributors include Harry W Arthurs G Blaine Baker Bonnie Brown Rosemary Cairns Way John M Evans Melvyn Green Bernard J Hibbitts Peter W Hogg Richard A Janda C Ian Kyer Andree Lajoie Gerald E Le Dain Allen M Linden Roderick A Macdonald Louise Rolland and Stephen A Scott Good Fight Brendan Kelly, 2019-11-01 Before official bilingualism was established in 1969 francophones were scarce in the Canadian public service Marcel Cadieux was one of the few becoming arguably the most important francophone diplomat and civil servant in Canadian history Brendan Kelly s insightful entertaining biography draws on extensive archival research and interviews to reveal a complex figure Cadieux held the nationalist views of many young French Canadians in the 1930s yet he made the distinctly unconventional decision to join the Department of External Affairs in 1941 Public service became the vocation of this blunt funny strong minded and sometimes undiplomatic diplomat Against the backdrop of rising Quebec separatism and the Cold War he headed the department from 1964 to 1970 and served as Canada's first francophone ambassador to the United States from 1970 to 1975 Cadieux s profound belief in the dignity of service speaks eloquently to readers today when professionalism and expertise are often undervalued The Politics of Command John Nelson Rickard, 2010-01-01 In December 1943 Lieutenant General A G L McNaughton resigned from command of the 1st Canadian Army amidst criticism of his poor generalship and of his abrasive personality Despite McNaughton's importance to the Canadian Army during the first four years of the Second World War little has been written about the man himself or the circumstances of his resignation In The Politics of Command the first full length study of the subject since 1969 John Nelson Rickard analyzes McNaughton's performance during exercise SPARTAN in March 1943 and assesses his relationships with key figures such as Sir Alan F Brooke Bernard Paget and Harry Crerar This detailed re examination of McNaughton s command argues that the long accepted reasons for his relief of duty require extensive modification Based on a wide range of sources The Politics of Command will redefine how military historians and all Canadians look not only at Andy McNaughton The Devil's Trick John Boyko, 2022-05-17 Forty five years after the fall of Saigon John but the Canadian Army as well Boyko brings to light the little known story of Canada's involvement in the American War in Vietnam Through the lens of six remarkable people some well known others obscure bestselling historian John Boyko recounts Canada s often overlooked involvement in that conflict as peacemaker combatant and provider of weapons and sanctuary When Brigadier General Sherwood Lett arrived in Vietnam over a decade before American troops he and the Canadians under his command risked their lives trying to enforce an unstable peace while questioning whether they were merely handmaidens to a new war As American battleships steamed across the Pacific Canadian diplomat Blair Seaborn was meeting secretly in Hanoi with North Vietnam's prime minister if American leaders accepted his roadmap to peace those ships could be turned around before war began Claire Culhane worked in a Canadian hospital in Vietnam and then returned home to implore Canadians to stop supporting what she deemed an immoral war Joe Erickson was among 30 000 young Americans who changed Canada by evading the draft and heading north Doug Carey was one of the 20 000 Canadians who enlisted with the American forces to serve in Vietnam Rebecca Trinh fled Saigon with her husband and young daughters joining the waves of desperate Indochinese refugees thousands of whom were to forge new lives in Canada Through these wide ranging and fascinating accounts Boyko exposes what he calls the Devil s wiliest trick convincing leaders that war is desirable persuading the public that it is acceptable and telling combatants that the deeds they carry out and the horrors they experience are normal or at least necessary In uncovering Canada's side of the story Boyko reveals the many secret and forgotten ways that Canada not only fought the war but was forever shaped by its lessons and lies Sherwood Lett Reginald H. Roy, University of British Columbia. Alumni Association, 1991 Disciplining Bodies in the Gymnasium Sherry Mckay, Patricia Vertinsky, 2004-05-06 The prize winning War Memorial Gymnasium at the University of British Columbia is discussed here examining what the building s design construction and shifting functions reveal about the university s values during the post war years The Canada's Army J. L. Granatstein, 2011-01-01 Canada's Army traces the full three hundred year history Advocate ,1987 of the Canadian military from its origins in New France to the Conquest the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812 from South Africa and the two World Wars to the Korean War and contemporary peacekeeping efforts and the War in Afghanistan Granatstein points to the inevitable continuation of armed conflict around the world and makes a compelling case for Canada to maintain properly equipped and professional armed forces pub desc Sites of Sport John Bale, Patricia Vertinsky, 2004-06-01 The study of built environments such as gymnasiums football stadiums swimming pools and skating rinks provides unique information about the historical enclosure of the gendered and sexualised body the body s capabilities needs and desires It illuminates the tensions between the globalising tendencies of sport and the importance of local culture and a sense of place This collection uses spatial concepts and examples to examine the nature and development of sporting Whitney Lackenbauer, Chris Madsen, 2007 In late 1945 a Canadian military court sitting in occupied Germany convicted Waffen SS General Kurt Meyer on charges related to the murder of Canadian prisoners of war in Normandy It was Canada's first entry into the war crimes field and the trial raised several important operational and legal issues particularly with regard to command responsibility Although sentenced to death by firing squad Meyer was saved by the controversial decision of Canadian military authorities to commute the sentence and was released after less than a decade of imprisonment in New Brunswick and West Germany Meyer's war crimes trial and the final result caused consternation and outrage among the Canadian public at the time It remains among the most contentious episodes in Canadian military history This collection brings together previously unpublished documents related to Canada's prosecution of Kurt Meyer including the original trial transcript and selected materials to situate the trial in its political military diplomatic and legal context p 4 of Cover International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara America, History and Life ,1993 Hopkinson, [Anonymus AC01401231], 1995 Bibliographie de la Vie Militaire Au Canada, 1867-1995 O.
