ITV Cultures Catherine Johnson,Rob Turnock,2005-09-16 This exciting book goes to the heart of a creative commercialand public service culture it shows why ITV matters and howit was made to work so well A tremendous contribution Professor Jean Seaton University of Westminster This is a valuable addition to studies of ITV s history andprogramming Tom O Malley Professor of Media Studies University of Wales Aberystwyth and Co Editor of Media History Since breaking the BBC s monopoly in 1955 ITV has been at thecentre of the British television landscape To coincide with thefiftieth anniversary of the first ITV broadcast this accessible bookoffers a range of perspectives on the complex and multifaceted history ofBritain s first commercial broadcaster The book explores key tensions and conflicts which have influenced theITV service Chapters focus on particular institutions includingLondon Weekend Television and ITN and programme forms includingWho Wants to be a Millionaire Upstairs Downstairs and Trisha The contributors show that ITV has had to tread an uneasy line betweenpublic service and commercial imperatives between a pluralistic regionalstructure and a national network and between popular appeal and quality programming A timeline of key events in the history of ITV is also included ITV Cultures provides a timely intervention in debates on broadcasting and cultural history for academics and researchers and a lively introduction to the history of ITV for students and general readers Contributors Rod Allen City University Jonathan Bignell University of Reading John Ellis Royal Holloway University of London Jackie Harrison University of Sheffield Jamie Medhurst University of Wales Aberystwyth Matt Hills Cardiff University Steve Neale University of Exeter Helen Wheatley University of Reading Sherryl Wilson Bournemouth University Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001

Assessment in Physical Education Bob Carroll, 2003-09-02 In the past assessment was underplayed or neglected in the training of physical education teachers Physical education lay largely outside of school's formal structures of assessment and books on assessment completely ignored this area of the school curriculum With the introduction of the GCSE Routes of Assessment ROA and the National Curriculum assessment has become an important part of the teaching of PE This book examines in detail the issues as they affect teachers Continuum Guide to Media Education Pat Brereton, 2005-09-14 This is a unique comprehensive and authoritative guide to media education in all its aspects the key concepts resources research findings movements issues debates educators and organizations that characterize the subject Presented in an easy to use A Z format the entries constitute an invaluable one stop resource for media educators and education students at all levels in this broad interdisciplinary subject area

Challenges and New Directions in Journalism Education Karen Fowler-Watt, 2023-04-28 Drawing on original and innovative contributions from educators practitioners and students Challenges and New Directions in Journalism Education captures and informs our understanding of journalism pedagogy in the context of ongoing shifts in journalism practice Journalism is once again facing challenges accused of elitism and often branded as too far removed from the reality of people's lives The post truth context has engendered a crisis of trust and journalism is portrayed as core to the problem rather than the solution Citizen journalism and societal shifts have provoked a move away from top down reporting towards greater interactivity with audiences but inclusivity remains an issue with news organisations and industry councils intensifying protocols in a bid to create more diverse newsrooms This poses multiple questions for journalism educators How is journalism education engaging with these imperatives in the post pandemic context How can student perspectives inform our response What journalism should we teach Against this landscape and in response to these questions this book engages with a series of key themes and objectives related to challenges and new directions in journalism education These include discussions around safeguarding sustainability journalism's democratic deficit integrating media literacy and the post pandemic context Each chapter draws on primary data case studies and examples to describe and unpack the topic and concludes with practical suggestions for journalism educators Challenges and New Directions in Journalism Education is key reading for anyone teaching or training to become a teacher of journalism

The Palgrave Handbook of Britain and the Holocaust Tom Lawson, Andy Pearce, 2021-01-19 This handbook is the most comprehensive and up to date single volume on the history and memory of the Holocaust in Britain It traces the complex relationship between Britain and the destruction of Europe's Jews from societal and political responses to persecution in the 1930s through formal reactions to war and genocide to works of representation and remembrance in post-war Britain Through this process the handbook not only updates existing historiography of Britain and the Holocaust it also adds new dimensions to our understanding by exploring the constant interface and interplay of history and memory The chapters bring together internationally renowned academics and talented younger scholars Collectively they examine a raft of themes and issues concerning the actions of contemporaries to the Holocaust and the responses of those who came after At a time when the Holocaust related activity in Britain proceeds apace the contributors to this handbook highlight the importance of rooting what we know and understand about Britain and the Holocaust in historical actuality This the volume suggests is the only way to respond meaningfully to the challenges posed by the Holocaust and ensure that the memory of it has purpose
