Shining Brow:

Shining Brow Paul Muldoon, 2011-05-19 Originally commissioned by Madison Opera as a libretto for American composer Daron Aric Hagen Shining Brow can be read as a dramatic poem in its own right Displaying all the structural ingenuity and subtle resonance that have marked Paul Muldoon as the most influential poet of his generation it tells with suitable bravura the story of architectural genius Frank Lloyd Wright and his catastrophic affair with the wife of a wealthy client

Shining Brow Olgivanna Wright, 1979-06-01 The Shining Brow: Frank Lloyd Wright Olgivanna Lloyd Wright, 1960 A personal portrait and appreciation of the master architect written by his widow

Frank Lloyd Wright Meryle Secrest, 1998 Wright's family history personal adventures and colorful friends are explored in this evocative biography Secrest had unprecedented access to an extensive archive of Wright's letters photographs drawings and books Secrest's achievement is to etch Wright's character in sharp relief She presents Wright in his every guise Blair Kamin Chicago Tribune 121 photos

Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay, 2012-06-20 Asphalt Nation is a major work of urban studies that examines how the automobile has ravaged America's cities and landscape and how we can fight back The automobile was once seen as a boon to American life eradicating the pollution caused by horses and granting citizens new levels of personal freedom and mobility But it was not long before the servant became the master public spaces were designed to accommodate the automobile at the expense of the pedestrian mass transportation was neglected and the poor unable to afford cars saw their access to jobs and amenities worsen Now even drivers themselves suffer as cars choke the highways and pollution and congestion have replaced the fresh air of the open road Today our world revolves around the car as a nation we spend eight billion hours a year stuck in traffic In Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay effectively calls for a revolution to reverse our automobile dependency Citing successful efforts in places from Portland Maine to Portland Oregon Kay shows us that radical change is not impossible by any means She demonstrates that there are economic political architectural and personal solutions that can steer us out of the mess Asphalt Nation is essential reading for everyone interested in the history of our relationship with the car and in the prospect of returning to a world of human mobility

Frank Lloyd Wright Robert C. Twombly, 1991-01-16 A complete biography based on a wide range of previously untapped primary sources covering Wright's private life architecture and role in American society culture and politics Views Wright's buildings as biographical as well as social statements analyzing his work by type category and individual structure Examines Wright's struggle to develop a new artistic statement his dramatic personal life and his political and economic ideas including those on cities energy conservation cooperative home building and environmental preservation Includes over 150 illustrations photographs floor plans and drawings many never before published extensive footnotes and the most exhaustive bibliography of Wright's published work available

Frank Lloyd Wright Jonathan Adams, 2022-09-15 This detailed innovative and meticulously researched study of the life and work of the architect Frank Lloyd Wright contextualises the historic Welsh origins of his attitude of creative defiance The book gives evidence of the early life of Wright's mother that transformed the established view of Wright's upbringing. It shows how he continued to draw from his Welsh culture throughout his long life and how it was expressed in his work. Our understanding of and appreciation for Wright's genius can only be enhanced by this work. Frank Lloyd Wright--the Lost Years, 1910-1922 Anthony Alofsin, 1993. New definition to the little known work Wright produced during this period which he describes as Wright's primitivist phase. He traces this influence in his art through Wright's explorations of primitivist sources, innovations in sculpture, and an intensification of the architect's use of ornament. Less tangible but as important was Wright's view of himself, his art, and society, and Alofsin uncovers the European impact on the architect's image of himself as a Duet with the Past. Daron Hagen, 2019-04-01. Composer, conductor, and operatic polymath Daron Hagen has written five symphonies, a dozen concertos, 13 operas, reams of chamber music, and more than 350 art songs. His intimate unsparing memoir chronicles his life from his haunted childhood in Wisconsin to the upper echelons of the music world in New York and Europe. Hagen's vivid anecdotes about his many collaborators, friends, and mentors, including Leonard Bernstein, Lukas Foss, Gian Carlo Menotti, Paul Muldoon, Ned Rorem, Virgil Thomson, and Gore Vidal, counterpoint a cautionary tale of the sacrifices necessary to succeed in the brutally unforgiving business of classical music. Homer and the Iliad. [A Translation of the Iliad Into English Verse, with Dissertations, Commentary and Notes.] By J. S. Blackie. Homer, 1866. Through the Long Desert: Georgia O'Keeffe and Frank Lloyd Wright Sarah Rovang, 2025-09-09. A richly illustrated exploration of newfound connections between American cultural icons Georgia O'Keeffe and Frank Lloyd Wright. This groundbreaking volume places the artist and architect side by side, shedding light on their lives, work, and mutual love of the American desert. Georgia O'Keeffe and Frank Lloyd Wright were neither competitors nor direct collaborators. Yet these romantic heroes of twentieth-century art and architecture largely operated in parallel. In this seminal book, Rovang weaves together their compelling life stories, examining newly discovered links between them and, in the process, offering a fresh perspective on their work, their intermittent yet poignant friendship, and their closeness to the desert. Starting in 1933, O'Keeffe and Wright exchanged roughly two dozen letters in which they expressed admiration for one another but also their passion for the places that informed them, many of which they had in common. Both were born in rural Wisconsin and built their careers in Chicago and New York. However, both sought inspiration and fulfillment in places farther afield, including in Japan and the desert landscape of the American Southwest. Juxtaposing images highlighting shared aspects of their individual biographies and work, this unique take on American creative expression explores the nature of artistic friendship and the idea of home. Rovang's text gives rich context to the allure and romance of her visual subject, offering readers new ways to appreciate O'Keeffe's and Wright's monumental contributions to American culture. The Book of Celtic Myths Jennifer Emick, 2016-12-02. Looks at the history, folklore, religion, and myths of the Celts who lived in Ireland. The Iliad in English verse John Stuart Blackie, 1866. Postcolonial Overtures Julia C. Obert, 2015-10-29. Postcolonial Overtures explores the importance of sound in contemporary Northern Irish writing focusing on the work of three canonical poets Ciaran Carson Derek Mahon and Paul Muldoon Obert argues that these poets respond to what Edward Said calls geographical violence to the stratification of the North's visual spaces to the sectarian symbols splashed across Belfast and beyond by turning from the eye to the ear tentatively remapping place in acoustic space Carson for instance casts Troubles era Belfast as a demolition city its landmarks swallowed in the maw of time and trouble and tries to compensate for this inhospitality by reimagining landscape as soundscape an immersive auditory field This strategy suggests sound's political and affective potential music accent and even comfortingly familiar white noise can help subjects otherwise unmoored feel at home Drawing on a diverse range of fields Obert devotes two chapters to the examination of each poet's work allowing room for both in depth formalist readings and contextual and theoretical understandings of the poems and their reverberating effects

Plagued by Fire Paul Hendrickson, 2019 From the award winning and nationally best selling author of Hemingway's Boat and Sons of Mississippi an illuminating pathbreaking biography that will change the way we understand the life mind and work of the premier American architect Frank Lloyd Wright has long been known as a rank egotist who held in contempt almost everything aside from his own genius Harder to detect but no less real is a Wright who fully understood and suffered from the choices he made This is the Wright whom Paul Hendrickson reveals in this masterful biography the Wright who was haunted by his father about whom he told the greatest lie of his life And this we see is the Wright of many other neglected aspects of his story his close and perhaps romantic relationship with friend and early mentor Cecil Corwin the eerie unmistakable role of fires in his life the connection between the Tulsa Race Riot of 1921 and the murder of his mistress her two children and four others at his beloved Wisconsin home by a black servant gone mad In showing us Wright's facades along with their cracks Hendrickson helps us form a fresh deep and more human understanding of the man With prodigious research unique vision and his ability to make sense of a life in ways at once unexpected poetic and undeniably brilliant he has given us the defining book on Wright

Insufficient Funds Peter C. Alexander, 2021-09-03 Insufficient Funds The Financial Life of Frank Lloyd Wright By Peter C Alexander Dozens of books have been written about architect Frank Lloyd Wright's architecture aesthetic and various design achievements however no one has looked at his business practices until now In this book Peter Alexander focuses on the financial life of this American architectural genius after more than fifteen years of research Wright was a spendthrift who earned a considerable fortune over his lifetime but he was a man who never had sufficient funds to meet his expenses Most often his lack of financial stability was because he had an insatiable need to spend money on Japanese art pianos cars and other assorted luxury items The material in the book comes from a wide variety of sources including conversations and anecdotes that have been included in the many published works about Mr Wright's life and legacy as well as verifiable and apocryphal stories shared by docents conducting house tours The book is also informed by considerable original material including archival records about Mr Wright's financial life and interviews of two of his grandchildren his
