Su un gave his life so that he could share his symbols his scriptures and the foundational principals of his religion with all people regardless of their status gender age or education. His egalitarian creed challenged the major religious traditions in Korea and Korean society as a whole to reflect on the innate dignity of each individual and to reform their social ethical and religious practices to accord with the reality of the Divine presence in the sacred refuge that lies within. Exploring the two symbols which Su un created and used to disseminate his religion and the two books of Scripture which he composed this book breaks new ground by presenting the only major work in English which attempts to ascertain the image Su un had of himself as the prototype of
