Ship of Lost Souls Rod Scher, 2024-11-05 Of all the stories of ships lost in what has come to be called the Graveyard of the Pacific that of the steamship Valencia is among the saddest In January 1906 the Valencia set out from San Francisco bound for Seattle with 108 passengers and some sixty five crew members aboard Owing to bad weather and the captain's mistakes the ship struck a reef eleven miles off Cape Beale on the southwest coast of Vancouver Island Rocks gashed open the ship's hull and a series of further missteps soon compounded the tragedy a hundredfold Only thirty seven people survived largely because of a lack of lifesaving infrastructure in the rugged area where the Valencia ran aground The wreck of the Valencia was an especially tragic one To begin with most on board perished including every woman and child many of whom had been lashed to the rigging high above the deck in an attempt to save them from the crashing waves Additionally the wreck itself was almost certainly avoidable due almost entirely to navigational errors the captain made Finally rescue efforts such as they were were hampered by not just the sea and weather but by the mistakes and some say the cowardice of the would be rescuers This book pieces together the story of the Valencia and her tragic end weaving together not just the threads of the ill fated voyage itself but also relevant contextual history including the development of radio technologies and lifesaving equipment and services that simply came too late to help the doomed voyagers

The Selected Papers of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony Ann D. Gordon, 2013-01-10 The hush of the title comes suddenly when first Elizabeth Cady Stanton dies on October 26 1902 and three years later Susan B Anthony dies on March 13 1906 It is sudden because Stanton despite near blindness and immobility wrote so intently right to the end that editors had supplies of her articles on hand to publish several months after her death It is sudden because Anthony at the age of eighty five set off for one more transcontinental trip telling a friend on the Pacific Coast it will be just as well if I come to the end on the cars or anywhere as to be at home Volume VI of this extraordinary series of selected papers is inescapably about endings death and silence But death happens here to women still in the fight An Awful Hush is about reformers trained in the school of anti slavery trying to practice their craft in the age of Jim Crow and a new American Empire It recounts new challenges to an aristocracy of sex whether among the bishops of the Episcopal church the voters of California or the trustees of the University of Rochester And it sends last messages about woman suffrage As Stanton wrote to Theodore Roosevelt on the day before she died Surely there is no greater monopoly than that of all men in denying to all women a voice in the laws they are compelled to obey With the publication of Volume VI this series is now complete The
