Coastal Shrines and Transnational Maritime Networks across India and Southeast Asia Himanshu Prabha Ray, 2020-07-26 This book breaks new ground by examining trans oceanic connectivity through the perspective of coastal shrines and maritime cultural landscapes across the Bay of Bengal and the South China Sea It covers a period of expanding networks and cross cultural encounters from the 3rd century BCE to the 13th century CE The book examines the distinctiveness of these shrines and highlights their interconnections and their role in social integration in South and Southeast Asia By drawing on data from shipwreck sites the author elaborates on the material and religious intersections and transmissions between cultures across the seas Many of these coastal shrines survived into the colonial period when they came to be admired for their aesthetic value as monuments As nation states of the region became independent these shrines were often inscribed on UNESCO's World Heritage List on account of their Outstanding Universal Values The book argues that in the 21st century there is a need to promote the cultural connectivity of the past as transnational heritage on UNESCO's global platform to preserve and protect our shared heritage The volume will be essential reading for academics and researchers of archaeology anthropology museum and heritage studies history of South and Southeast Asia religious studies cultural studies and Asian studies

Belitung Natali Pearson, 2022-11-30 In 1998 the Belitung a ninth century western Indian Ocean style vessel was discovered in Indonesian waters Onboard was a full cargo load likely intended for the Middle Eastern market of over 60 000 Chinese Tang dynasty ceramics gold and other precious objects It is one of the most significant shipwreck discoveries of recent times revealing the global scale of ancient commercial endeavors and the centrality of the ocean within the Silk Road story But this shipwreck also has a modern tale to tell of how nation states appropriate the remnants of the past for their own purposes and of the international debates about who owns and is responsible for shared heritage The commercial salvage of objects from the Belitung and their subsequent sale to Singapore contravened the principles of the 2001 UNESCO Convention on the Protection of the Underwater Cultural Heritage and prompted international condemnation The resulting controversy continues to reverberate in academic and curatorial circles Major museums refused to host international traveling exhibitions of the collection and some archaeologists announced they would rather see the objects thrown back in the sea than ever go on display Shipwrecks are anchored in the public imagination their stories of treasure and tragedy told in museums cinema and song At the same time they are sites of scholarly inquiry a means by which maritime archaeologists interrogate the past through its material remains Every shipwreck is an accidental time capsule replete with the sunken stories of those on board of the personal and commercial objects that went down with the vessel and of an unfinished journey In this moving and thought provoking reflection of underwater cultural heritage management Natali Pearson reveals valuable new information about the Belitung salvage obtained firsthand from the salvagers and the intricacies in the many conflicts and relationships that developed In tracing the Belitung s lives and afterlives this book shifts our thinking about shipwrecks beyond popular tropes of romance pirates and treasure and toward an understanding of how the relationships between sites objects and people shape the stories we tell of the past in the present

Out of the Depths Alan G. Jamieson,2024-08-12 A highly illustrated voyage through shipwrecks ancient and contemporary Out of the Depths explores all aspects of shipwrecks across four thousand years examining their historical context and significance showing how shipwrecks can be time capsules and shedding new light on long departed societies and civilizations Alan G Jamieson not only informs readers of the technological developments over the last sixty years that have made the true appreciation of shipwrecks possible but he also covers shipwrecks in culture and maritime archaeology their appeal to treasure hunters and their environmental impacts Although shipwrecks have become less common in recent decades their implications have become more wide ranging since the 1960s foundering supertankers have caused massive environmental disasters and in 2021 the blocking of the Suez Canal by the giant container ship Ever Given had a serious effect on global trade

The Resurgence of East Asia Giovanni Arrighi,Takeshi Hamashita,Mark Selden,2004-02-24 The East Asian expansion since the 1960s stands out as a global power shift with few historical precedents The Resurgence of East Asia examines the rise of the region as one of the world s economic power centres from three temporal perspectives 500 years 150 years and 50 years each denoting an epoch in regional and world history and providing a vantage point against which to assess contemporary developments

Legends of the Secret Tunnels of Malacca Dennis De Witt,2018-01-01 Tales of the subterranean tunnels under the historic town of Malacca has existed for over a century There were stories of tunnels that served as the governor s secret emergency exit from the fortress and a mile long tunnel that once connected the fortress of Malacca to the fort on St John s hill strategically built for the defence of the town There were also stories of a tunnel under St Paul s hill and how people had gone into these tunnels but were never to be seen again because they were eaten alive by a giant mythical serpent who guards the tunnels What secrets do the tunnels contain and why were people willing to risk their life by descending into the the dark and unknown orifices below Malacca Is there lost treasure still buried in Malacca Did the last Sultan of Malacca stash his huge cache of gold after the Portuguese captured Malacca and the secret vault still remains undiscovered till today Was Malacca Ptolemy s Golden Chersonese and the Ophir the source of King Solomon s gold This book uncovers the layers of history that unfolds Malacca s most bizarre and amazing legend

The Manila-Acapulco Galleons : the Treasure Ships of the Pacific Shirley Fish,2011-05-18 During the sixteenth to the nineteenth centuries the transpacific treasure galleons sailed annually from Manila to Acapulco In Manila the vessel was loaded with the scented spices of the East luxurious silks from China exquisite hand crafted lacquerware from Japan and a multitude of Oriental goods that the Spaniards of New Spain longed to own The returning galleon from Acapulco to Manila carried as much as 2 5 million silver pesos in payment of the goods sent to the New Spain in the previous year as well as a yearly silver subsidy of 250 000 reales for the maintenance of the colonial government in the Philippines But while the galleons mainly sailed alone and unaccompanied from Manila to Acapulco and vice versa they were vulnerable to a host of calamities and misfortunes A fire on board the vessel or a terrifying storm could end the voyage and the lives of every one on the ship even before the galleon was able to reach land Additionally the commanders of the galleons were always threatened by lurking pirates and privateers who preyed on the vessels and coveted the treasures they carried The book describes in detail how the galleons were attacked at sea and how they fought against enemy vessels as well as how many of the ships sank or were shipwrecked over the years It also covers their management construction manning weaponry navigation daily life on the ship provisions cargoes and voyages The book contains an annotated list of the galleons sailing between the Philippines and Mexico from 1565 to 1815 This informative book is the first of its kind to cover such an expansive history of the Pacific galleons which up to this point had remained largely untold
