Shock And Awe War On Words:

America and the Misshaping of a New World Order Giles Gunn, Carl Gutiérrez-Jones, 2010-06 An important and telling critique of the myth and rhetoric of contemporary American expansionism and grand strategy What is particularly original about these essays and unusually rare in studies of American foreign policy is their provocative combination of cultural and literary analysis with a subtle appreciation of the historical transformation of political forms and principles of world order Stephen Gill author of Power and Resistance in the New World Order The Discourse Trap and the US Military J. Michaels, 2013-03-19 This book proposes the idea of a discourse trap in which the discourses and associated terminology devised for political or military reasons can entrap policymakers by motivating or constraining their actions Donna Haraway: Live Theory Joseph Schneider, 2005-06-20 This is an introductory guide to the work of Donna Haraway a key contemporary theorist Transnationalism and the German City J. Diefendorf, J. Ward, 2014-04-24 Too often scholars treat transnationalism as a conflict in which the local regional and national give way to globalized identity As these varied studies of German cities show though the urban environment is actually a site of trans localism that is not merely oppositional but that adapts itself dialectically to the forces of globalization Strategic Terror Beau Grosscup, 2013-07-18 Presenting a global history of aerial bombardment this book shows how certain European powers initiated aerial bombardment of civilians after World War I and how it was an instrument of choice in World War II Beau Grosscup shows that such methods used initially as a means of terrorizing native populations in Africa and the Middle East have become the primary form of terrorism in more recent decades While such strategic terror is not classed as terrorism in the West this reflects an unwillingness to confront the human costs and immorality of aerial bombardment Grosscup argues that if terrorism is to be diminished the role of aerial bombing in sustaining global violence must be recognized Concerning War Maria Hlavajova, Jill Winder, 2006 Nieuwe en bestaande teksten van kunstenaars en auteurs die de mogelijkheden analyseren om een kritisch artistieke respons te geven op de hedendaagse wereld in een toestand van mondiale oorlog The Philosophical Animal Eduardo Mendieta, 2024-06-01 Humans are animals who fictionalize other animals to asse their humanness We are philosophical animals who philosophize about our humanity by projecting images onto a mirror about other animals Spanning literature philosophy and ethics the thread uniting The Philosophical Animal is the bestiary and how it continues to inform our imaginings Beginning with an exploration of animals and women in the literary work of Coetzee famous for his book on the Lives of Animals Eduardo Mendieta then dives into the genre of bestiaries in order to investigate the relation between humanity and animality From there he approaches the works of Derrida and Habermas from the standpoint of genetic engineering and animal studies While we have intensely modified many species genetically we have not done this to ourselves Why Finally Mendieta deals with the political and ethical implications suggested by this question before ending on an autobiographical note about growing up around so called animals and in particular horses

Ethnographies of U.S. Empire Carole McGranahan, John F. Collins, 2018-08-02 How do we live in and with empire The contributors to Ethnographies of U S Empire pursue this question by examining empire as an unequally shared present Here empire stands as an entrenched if often invisible part of everyday life central to making and remaking a world in which it is too often presented as an aberration rather than as a structuring condition This volume presents scholarship from across U S imperial formations settler colonialism overseas territories communities impacted by U S military action or political intervention Cold War alliances and fissures and most recently new forms of U S empire after 9 11 From the Mohawk Nation Korea and the Philippines to Iraq and the hills of New Jersey the contributors show how a methodological and theoretical commitment to ethnography sharpens all of our understandings of the novel and timeworn ways people live thrive and resist in the imperial present Contributors Kevin K Birth Joe Bryan John F Collins Jean Dennison Erin Fitz Henry Adriana Mar a Garriga L pez Ol via Maria Gomes da Cunha Matthew Gutmann Ju Hui Judy Han J K haulani Kauanui Eleana Kim Heonik Kwon Soo Ah Kwon Darryl Li Catherine Lutz Sunaina Maira Carole McGranahan Sean T Mitchell Jan M Padios Melissa Rosario Audra Simpson Ann Laura Stoler Lisa Uperesa David Vine

The Emotional Politics of Racism Paula Ioanide, 2015-05-20 With stop and frisk laws new immigration policies and cuts to social welfare programs majorities in the United States have increasingly supported intensified forms of punishment and marginalization against Black Latino Arab and Muslim people in the United States even as a majority of citizens claim to support colorblindness and racial equality With this book Paula Ioanide examines how emotion has prominently figured into these contemporary expressions of racial discrimination and violence How U S publics dominantly feel about crime terrorism welfare and immigration often seems to trump whatever facts and evidence say about these politicized matters Though four case studies the police brutality case of Abner Louima the exposure of torture at Abu Ghraib the demolition of New Orleans public housing units following Hurricane Katrina and a proposed municipal ordinance to deny housing to undocumented immigrants in Escondido CA Ioanide shows how racial fears are perpetuated and how these widespread fears have played a central role in justifying the expansion of our military and prison system and the ongoing divestment from social welfare But Ioanide also argues that within each of these cases there is opportunity for new mobilizations for ethical witnessing we must also popularize desires for justice and increase people s receptivity to the testimonies of the oppressed by reorganizing embodied and unconscious structures of feeling

Commitment and Complicity in Cultural Theory and Practice B. Firat, S. De Mul, S. Van Wichelen, Sarah De Mul, Sonja Van Wichelen, 2009-05-21 An international line up of scholars examines the role of the intellectual in the twenty first century looking at the gap between contemporary cultural theory and cultural practice and asking whether knowledge and methodologies in the humanities can intervene in everyday politics and vice versa

Martha Rosler Rosalyn Deutsche, Elena Volpato, Martha Rosler, Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.), 2018-01-01 The politically engaged work of Martha Rosler is fascinating and provocative this wide ranging survey brings timely insights at a moment of resurgence for political activism and feminism      The Insecure American Hugh Gusterson, Catherine Besteman, 2009-11-24 Americans are feeling insecure They are retreating to gated communities in record numbers fearing for their jobs and their 401 k s nervous about their health insurance and their debt levels worrying about terrorist attacks and immigrants In this innovative volume editors Hugh Gusterson and Catherine Besteman gather essays from nineteen leading ethnographers to create a unique portrait of an anxious country and to furnish valuable insights into the nation s possible future With an incisive foreword by Barbara Ehrenreich the contributors draw on their deep knowledge of different facets of American life to map the impact of the new economy the war on terror the war on drugs racial resentments a fraying safety net undocumented immigration a health care system in crisis and much more In laying out a range of views on the forces that unsettle us The Insecure American demonstrates the singular power of an anthropological perspective for grasping the impact of corporate profit on democratic life charting the links between policy and vulnerability and envisioning alternatives to life as an insecure American

Animal Subjects Jodey Castricano, 2008-05-20 Although Cultural Studies has directed sustained attacks against sexism and racism the question of the animal has lagged behind developments in broader society with regard to animal suffering in factory farming product testing and laboratory experimentation as well in zoos rodeos circuses and public aquariums The contributors to Animal Subjects are scholars and writers from diverse perspectives whose work calls into question the boundaries that divide the animal kingdom from humanity focusing on the medical biological cultural philosophical and ethical concerns between non human animals and ourselves The first of its kind to feature the work of Canadian scholars and writers in this emergent field this collection aims to include the non human animal question as part of the ethical purview of Cultural Studies and to explore the question in interdisciplinary terms      Authoritarian Capitalism in the Age of Globalization Peter Bloom, 2016-03-25 Exploring the rise of authoritarian capitalism this book offers a fresh perspective on politics and economics in the present age of globalization It asks the crucial question of whether individuals and nations can break free from the grip of authoritarian capitalism in the twenty first century Peter Bloom includes a detailed and in depth analysis of how marketization is promoting political authoritarianism across the world He tells a story of authoritarian progress where capitalist prosperity can only be delivered by the coercive rule of self disciplining nations and disciplining trans national institutions and in which capitalist sovereignty is replacing liberal and social democracy In doing so Bloom helps readers rethink the structural as well as discursive role of sovereign power within capitalism showing the ways the free market relies upon a range of authoritarian political fantasies not just for its growth but its very survival      Love and

Industry Sonya Huber, 2024-05-01 The 20 essays pack a punch not the sort that gives you an immediate bruise but one that leaves you strangely sore for days Kerry Cardoza Chicago Reader New Lenox Illinois is a small town deep in the corn grid of the Midwest where it runs up against the grid of south Chicagoland a placeless location marked by geographical flatness and dwindling industry It s also where Sonya Huber grew up and in the twenty essays collected here she lovingly explores the ways New Lenox and the Midwest more generally has come to define her life Here you ll find portraits of Huber s parents as they tirelessly run a small business homages to the Gen X joys of wearing flannel secret insights about being a Pizza Hut waitress and odes to the ecstasy of blasting classic rock as your car hurls along I 80 Whether she s writing about All in the Family detailing the region s influence on David Foster Wallace or exploring the poetry embedded in a can of Miller High Life her vision is astute and her prose convincing Sometimes experimental and always inventive Love and Industry A Midwestern Workbook takes seriously Chicagoland s farthest reaches gritty sweeping a region full of its own distinct feelings of almostness and transforms them into a map of the heart a ramshackle territory marked by memory family regret determination and wonderment A must read Library Journal Huber is a masterful essayist Megan Stielstra author of The Wrong Way to Save Your Life Sonya Huber has written a glorious midwestern road trip for the personal essay set Barrie Jean Borich author of Apocalypse Darling Body Geographic and My Lesbian Husband

Liberalism and War Andrew Williams,2013-04-03 Military power is now the main vehicle for regime change The US army has been used on more than 30 different occasions in the post Cold War world compared with just 10 during the whole of the Cold War era Leading scholar Andrew Williams tackles contemporary thinking on war with a detailed study on liberal thinking over the last century about how wars should be ended using a vast range of historical archival material from diplomatic other official and personal papers which this study situates within the debates that have emerged in political theory He examines the main strategies used at the end and in the aftermath of wars by liberal states to consolidate their liberal gains and to prevent the re occurrence of wars with those states they have fought This new study also explores how various strategies revenge restitution reparation restraint retribution reconciliation and reconstruction have been used by liberal states not only to defeat their enemies but also transform them This is a major new contribution to contemporary thinking and action This book will be of great interest to all students and scholars of politics international relations and security studies

When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway,2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U S households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway s vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism

Uncertain Territories Inge E. Boer, 2006 Tracing and theorizing the concept of boundaries through literary works visual objects and cultural phenomena this book argues against the reification of boundaries as fixed and empty non spaces that divide the world The contributors elaborate on Boer s theme of boundaries as spaces where opposition yields to negotiation Their analyses span diverse artefacts and media ranging from literature to photography to art installation and presentation film and song Fanning out from Boer s central focus Orientalism to other places of contestation boundaries are described to mediate the relationship between self and other
