Teaching the Holocaust in School History Lucy Russell, 2006-08-17 If we expose students to a study of human suffering we have a responsibility to guide them through it But is this the role of school history This issue is the rationale behind teaching the Holocaust primarily historical moral or social Is the Holocaust to be taught as a historical event with a view to developing students critical historical skills or as a tool to combat continuing prejudice and discrimination These profound questions lie at the heart of Lucy Russell's fascinating analysis of teaching the Holocaust in school history She considers how the topic of the Holocaust is currently being taught in schools in the UK and overseas Drawing on interviews with educationalists academics and teachers she discovers that there is in fact a surprising lack of consensus regarding the purpose of and approaches to teaching the Holocaust in history Indeed the majority view is distinctly non historical there is a tendency to teach the Holocaust from a social and moral perspective and not as history This book attempts to explain and debate this phenomenon Shock! Horror! History!, 1998 Texts Through History Adele Wills, 2004 This text provides students with the skills they need to analyze the historical context of a text without relying on extra research Includes a wide range of illustrative texts from interviews and poetry to comic sketches and adverts Drugs and Narcotics in History Roy Porter, Mikulas Teich, 1995 A collection of essays exploring the complex history of drugs and narcotics throughout history from ancient Greece to the present day shows that such substances were sought originally as healing agents both within and without the medical profession However the mood and mind altering characteristics of some have led to the widespread abuse and legal controls we see today Discographies Jeremy Gilbert, Ewan Pearson, 2002-03-11 Experiencing disco hip hop house techno drum n bass and garage Discographies plots a course through the transatlantic dance scene of the last last twenty five years It discusses the problems posed by contemporary dance culture of both academic and cultural study and finds these origins in the history of opposition to music as a source of sensory pleasure Discussing such issues as technology club space drugs the musical body gender sexuality and pleasure Discographies explores the ecstatic experiences at the heart of contemporary dance culture It suggests why politicians and agencies as diverse as the independent music press and public broadcasting should be so hostile to this cultural phenomenon The EC Archives: Shock SuspenStories Volume 1 Various, 2021-09-21 The classic EC series presented as a deluxe size trade paperback This high quality trade reprints the first six complete issues of the pulp comic classic Shock SuspenStories Featuring the titanic artistic talents of Al Feldstein Jack Kamen Jack Davis Joe Orlando Graham Ingles and Wally Wood with a foreword by Steven Spielberg Collects Shock SuspenStories issues 1 6 The EC Archives: Shock SuspenStories Volume 2 Bill Gaines, Al Feldstein, 2022-11-15 The classic EC series presented as a deluxe size trade paperback This high quality trade reprints the issues 7 12 of the pulp comic classic Shock SuspenStories Featuring 24 stories by the all star artistic talents of Al Feldstein Jack Kamen Jack Davis Joe Orlando Al Williamson and Wally Wood The Hidden Case of Ewan Forbes Zoë Playdon, 2021-11-02 Childhood The medical student Marriage A death in the family Margaret's fateful letter The medical examination An audacious defense The judge's dilemma A perfect storm Outlawed Another audacious defense Ewan's legacy Religion and Generation Z Brian Mountford, 2022-04-29 In 2017 NatCen's British Social Attitudes survey published statistics that 53% of the people in Britain say they have no religion and that of those 70% of the 18 24 age group claim to have no religion These essays attempt to say why and are individual responses rather than a systematic examination of the question Atheist Agnostic Irish Catholic Protestant and Muslim views are represented The purpose was to explain a social trend but in the process of writing several of the contributors have as if by chance produced material which is richly meditative and can be read both for information and as spiritual reflection The Editor Brian Mountford is concerned that too often the religious views of the young are discussed by older clergy and writers but rarely heard first hand This book is a partial remedy Mountford has written opening and closing chapters setting the scene and finally asking what future there is for religion

An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba Doctor Nahla Abdo, Nur Masalha, 2018-05-15 In 2018 Palestinians mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba when over 750 000 people were uprooted and forced to flee their homes in the early days of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Even today the bitterness and trauma of the Nakba remains raw and it has become the pivotal event both in the shaping of Palestinian identity and in galvanising the resistance to occupation Unearthing an unparalleled body of rich oral testimony An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba tells the story of this epochal event through the voices of the Palestinians who lived it uncovering remarkable new insights both into Palestinian experiences of the Nakba and into the wider dynamics of the ongoing conflict Drawing together Palestinian accounts from 1948 with those of the present day the book confronts the idea of the Nakba as an event consigned to the past instead revealing it to be an ongoing process aimed at the erasure of Palestinian memory and history In the process each unique and wide ranging contribution leads the way for new directions in Palestinian scholarship

The Rhetoric of Manipulation Robert Harvey, 2025-03-20 A provocative and timely look at how language is used to manipulate the truth how our gullibility leaves us susceptible to manipulation and what we can do to reverse these trends The Rhetoric of Manipulation looks behind the curtain of political and social communications in the age of fake news and the post truth to show how the perversely engineered semantics at work today shapes culture and undermines reality While language has always been manipulated to direct or anesthetize thought today s semantic perversions orient opinion and subdue political action to an alarming degree Under such conditions we are particularly susceptible to demagoguery Arguing that too many of us have let our critical faculties wither Robert Harvey opens our ears and eyes to an insidious impediment to free thinking by unflinchingly examining five realms of semantic perversion the contemporary vocabulary of war the recently evolved language tool known as scare quotes the terms used to peddle white supremacy the phenomenon of so called cancel culture and the jargon deployed in the corporatization of higher education The wager of The Rhetoric of Manipulation is that a frank expos of bad faith discursive practices and our accompanying gullibility can contribute to reversing the trend remedying the current situation in view of a far more ethical immediate future and remediating some of the damage already done

A Genius for Deception Nicholas Rankin, 2009-11-10 In February 1942 intelligence officer Victor Jones erected 150 tents behind British lines in North Africa Hiding tanks in Bedouin tents was an old British trick writes Nicholas Rankin German general Erwin Rommel not only knew of the ploy but had copied it himself Jones knew that Rommel knew In fact he counted on it for these tents were empty With the deception that he was carrying out a deception Jones made a weak point look like a trap In A Genius for Deception Nicholas Rankin offers a lively and comprehensive history of how Britain bluffed tricked and spied its way to victory in two world wars As Rankin shows a coherent program of strategic deception emerged in World War I resting on the pillars of camouflage propaganda secret intelligence and special forces All forms of deception found an avid sponsor in Winston Churchill who carried his enthusiasm for deceiving the enemy into World War II Rankin vividly recounts such little known episodes as the invention of camouflage by two French artist soldiers the creation of dummy airfields for the Germans to bomb during the Blitz and the fabrication of an army that would supposedly invade Greece Strategic deception would be key to a number of WWII battles culminating in the massive misdirection that proved critical to the success of the D Day invasion in 1944 Deeply researched and written with an eye for telling detail A Genius for Deception shows how the British used craft and cunning to help win the most devastating wars in human history

Awaiting Apocalypse P. Corcoran, 1999-12-03 The current obsession with the end of the millennium illustrates the enduring power of the idea of endings This fascination cannot be simply dismissed as faulty logic a form of madness or a primitive survival of childish thinking Opening a path of understanding between ancient conceptions of meaning and the sceptical predicates of modern science Awaiting Apocalypse shows how ordinary and extraordinary endings are inherent in the narrative structure of human experience and the sedimentation of that experience as historical meaning

Ill Effects Martin Barker, Julian Petley, 2013-08-21 Ill Effects is a radical re examination of the whole media effects debate It questions not only whether the media is capable of directly influencing people s views and actions but also whether the idea of effects is the most useful way of conceptualising the relationship between the media and audiences Ill Effects looks at the reasons why the media are routinely blamed for horrific events such as the murders of James Bulger and Suzanne Capper and the Hungerford massacre as well as for perceived trends such as the alleged death of the family and the rise of yob culture The authors concern goes beyond individual cases they discuss the development and current state of play of research into media effects the remarkable power of common sense notions of media effects and the way in which the effects issue has become embroiled in debates about freedom of expression and censorship They suggest how audiences really respond to media texts and argue that there is an urgent need for informed and interdisciplinary approaches to the study of the media Martin Barker University of the West of England UK Julian Petley Brunel University UK Pat Holland David Buckingham The Anneberg School for Communication UK David Mi
