Foregrounding Ethical Awareness in Composition and English Studies Sheryl I. Fontaine,Susan Hunter,1998 This collection of essays is the first sustained look at the emerging ethical concerns in composition and English studies Unlike other works that may have used ethics as a way to set a particular code of conduct or to examine a particular area of study this book describes a range of situations obliging us to reevaluate the ethical systems that we have previously accepted Fontaine and Hunter have organized the essays into conceptual sections that focus on three of the many ways in which our current situations can be reconsidered In the first section Reevaluating Contemporary Pedagogies the authors identify ethical problems that arise within some of our most widely accepted pedagogical strategies and perspectives Competing Obligations refers to the ethical problems that emerge as teachers and administrators find themselves faced with allegiances to more than one group and more than one vision in the academy And the authors in Professional Evolutions consider ways in which developments and changes in the world outside the English department create ethical conflicts close to home Together these essays provide ethical vantage points from which it is incumbent upon us to view our agency in our profession and in our classrooms The book's wide range of voices and perspectives helps us begin to understand our own personal and professional ethical awareness and to anticipate the issues we all must face Shop Talk, 1901 A Way to Move Dale Jacobs, Laura R. Micciche, 2003 This groundbreaking volume offers a fresh and invigorating examination of emotion as a category of critical thought in Composition Studies

Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley S. Peterson, 2008-08-08 As the amount of curriculum in today's classrooms expands and teaching time seems to shrink teachers are looking for ways to integrate content area and writing instruction In this revised and expanded edition of Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley Peterson shows teachers how to weave writing and content area instruction together in their classrooms The author provides practical and helpful ideas for classroom teachers and content area specialists to easily incorporate writer's workshop while teaching in their subject area New features in this second edition include internet websites that can be used to teach writing e.g. wiki's weblogs and digital storytelling examples from grades 4-8 classrooms that show how science social studies health and mathematics teachers can also be teachers of poetry narrative and non narrative writing new assessment scoring guides information on working with struggling writers and supporting English Language Learners graphic organizers templates and mini lessons that engage students in learning What We Talk about When We Talk about Creative Writing Anna Leahy, 2016-07-27 Marking the tenth anniversary of the New Writing Viewpoints series this new book takes the concept of an edited collection to its extreme pushing the possibilities of scholarship and collaboration All authors in this book including those who contributed to Power and Identity in the Creative Writing Classroom which launched the series ten years ago are proof that creative writing matters that it can be rewarding over the long haul and that there exist many ways to do what we do as writers and as teachers This book captures a wide swathe of ideas on pedagogy on programs on the profession and on careers Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1971 Handbook of Adolescent Literacy Research Leila Christenbury, Randy Bomer, Peter
