Sidewalk Tales Arlene Rogers Wilhite,2020-12-22 Sidewalk Tales is a compilations of seventeen short stories about events that happened in my life and were centered around happening on sidewalks I always wanted to write about my life story because I felt that I could help someone who might have gone through some of the hardships I did and to share the joys I had as a child and student coming up in the streets and schools of Los Angeles California This book could have been called porch tales or school tales and even life s tales but Side walk Tales came about as I walk along the sidewalks of San Bernardino California and stumped my toe on a rock that lie on a sidewalk pane I noticed names carved in the cement and became interested in what those names meant Why would anyone write their names in cement particularly across from the San Bernardino train station And as my mind began to create stories about those names I began to wonder about the many times Something had happened to me on a sidewalk and I remember saying if only sidewalks could talk like if the fly on the walk could talk what stories could be told and hence the title of my book came to life

What made this slab of cement even more exciting to me is when I mentioned it to one of my step daughters and found out that she and her sister knew the guys whose names were engraved in that cement I knew then it was a sign for me to sit down and write my book I had found my approach because I didn't want to write an autobiography or a wellness book but I wanted to write about my life in a way that was for anyone to understand and with the hopes that it would heal someone This book has been healing for me as a writer who experienced growth from each story held deep within me but I knew it was only through telling my stories would that my healing would come a self healing with a spiritual guidance of some sort and I hope that it is a portal to someone else's wellness for whatever reason is needed

Once Upon a Time in a Different World Neal A. Lester, 2010-06-21 Once Upon a Time in a Different World a unique addition to the celebrated Children's Literature and Culture series seeks to move discussions and treatments of ideas in African American Children's literature from the margins to the forefront of literary discourse. Looking at a variety of topics including the moralities of heterosexism, the veneration of literacy and the politics of hair, Neal A. Lester provides a scholarly and accessible compilation of essays that will serve as an invaluable resource for parents, students and educators. The much needed reexamination of African American children's texts follows an engaging call and response format allowing for a lively and illuminating discussion between its primary author and a diverse group of contributors including educators, scholars, students, parents and critics. In addition to these distinct dialogues, the book features an enlightening generational conversation between Lester and his teenage daughter as they review the same novels. With critical assessments of Toni and Slade Morrison's The Big Box and The Book of Mean People, bell hooks' Happy to Be Nappy and Anne Schraff's Until We Meet Again, among many other works, these provocative and fresh essays yield a wealth of perspectives on the intersections of identity formations in childhood and adulthood.

Unthinking Eurocentrism Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2013-09-27 This excellent book corrects eurocentric criticism from media studies in the past by examining Hollywood movie genres such as the western and the musical from a multicultural perspective.

Don't Be Afraid Miracle, 2025-05-08 Don't Be Afraid is the remarkable story of a woman who has been abused physically, mentally and sexually. It seeks to share this woman's story and let others know that they are special. No one has the right to abuse anyone and no one deserves to be treated in such a way. We are all special. No matter how hopeless it may seem, there are always people willing to lend a hand and help out. Hopefully, Don't Be Afraid will aid someone who is afraid to get out of a situation and doesn't know what to do. Miracle shares her experiences to show others that if she can make it, anyone can. About the Author: Miracle has her master's degree in education. She is also involved in the community.

A Mosaic of Believers Gerardo Marti, 2009-10-26 Mosaic in southern California is one of the largest and most innovative multiethnic congregations in America. Gerardo Marti shows us how this unusual church has achieved multiethnicity not by targeting specific groups but by providing multiple havens of inclusion that play down ethnic differences. He reveals a congregation aiming to reconstruct evangelical theology, personal identity, member involvement and church governance to create an institution with greater relevance to the social reality of a new generation.

The Color

Complex Kathy Russell, Kathy Russell-Cole, Midge Wilson, Ronald E. Hall, 1993 Presents a powerful argument backed by historical fact and anecdotal evidence that color prejudice remains a devastating divide within black America
