A Practical Guide for Personal Assistants Grace Tu, 2013-11-26 A practical guide for on the job personal assistants executive assistants and secretaries having similar responsibilities. This book is targeted to improve their overall presentation and professionalism as they strive to climb up the corporate ladder. Some specific chapters e.g. language proficiency are helpful to people whose mother tongue is not English. This is not a book to teach shorthand typing skills or the basic office routines. This is a book for those who would like to advance themselves through some practical guidance with emphasis on a hands on and functional approach. In fact theoretical knowledge and technical skills can be obtained from school but things like common sense and integrity can only be obtained through life experience. The thirteen chapters are split into two major modules coaching assistants how they can manage their jobs in both practical and ethical ways with appendices of samples and helpful business terms.

Using Phonics to Teach Reading & Spelling John Bald, 2007-08-21 Includes CD Rom Times Educational Supplement Star Read. This is an authoritative yet lively and eminently readable book. It is well grounded in both the latest academic theory and experienced hands on pedagogic practice and it summarises succinctly the implications of the recent Rose Report giving a masterly exposition of both synthetic and analytic phonics and their places in the processes of learning to read and spell. Practical and organisational issues are tackled in a most supportive way with very useful checklists and photocopyable proformas on an accompanying CD. The book also provides an excellent guide to provision for professional development involving the use of lesson observation and part of the evaluation and planning cycle for CPD. Its style is clear and well signposted with subheadings case study boxes to illuminate points and with aims given at the start of each chapter as well as challenging points for reflection and guides to further reading at the ends. Every staff room should have one.
