Short Journey Upriver Toward Oishida:

Short Journey Upriver toward Oishida Roo Borson, 2004-03-16 In Roo Borson's new watershed collection it is as though language were being taught to increase its powers of concentration to hearken simultaneously to the fully impinged upon senses the reflecting mind with its griefs and yearnings the heart with its burden of live memory Always the line bends as the river bends a quick ever adjusting music that carries in its current those cherished perishable details of eye and ear mid life reflections on loss and home the subtle shifts in season suddenly made strange and re awakened Recurrently probing the line returns to the place of poetry in our lives In the spirit of Basho's famous journey to the far north Borson's short journey reminds us of the role of poetry in shaping and deepening our engagement with the world Beauty and Sadness Andre Alexis, 2010-09-04 Embark on an ecstatic journey through literary space with acclaimed author Andre Alexis The Griffin Poetry Prize 2005 Anthology Erin Moure, 2005-08-05 The fifth volume of The Griffin Poetry Prize Anthology includes selections from the books shortlisted for the 2005 Griffin Poetry Prize chosen by the jurors UK poet Simon Armitage Governor General's Award winner Erin Moure and Slovenian poet Tomaz Salamun Royalties from the anthology are donated to UNESCO's World Poetry Day The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-05-27 This fully revised second edition of The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive introduction to major writers genres and topics For this edition several chapters have been completely rewritten to reflect major developments in Canadian literature since 2004 Surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing Areas of research that have expanded since the first edition include environmental concerns and questions of sexuality which are freshly explored across several different chapters A substantial chapter on francophone writing is included Authors such as Margaret Atwood noted for her experiments in multiple literary genres are given full consideration as is the work of authors who have achieved major recognition such as Alice Munro recipient of the Nobel Prize for literature History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Laflèche Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breibach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Rain; road; an open boat Roo Borson, 2013-11-26 The first new collection of poetry from Roo Borson since her highly acclaimed collection Short Journey Upriver Toward Oishida winner of three major prizes including the Griffin Poetry Prize Roo Borson's new collection continues the exploration of form tone musicality and content begun in her widely acclaimed previous collection Here co existing peacefully are the river stone painted white that greets the visitor to the grave of the poet James K Baxter in the far back country of New Zealand's Wanganui River the Beijing night sky turned apricot by the smog and full moon of the Mid Autumn Festival the crypts of Toronto's Mount Pleasant Cemetery seen as potential living spaces an old friend speaking knowledgeably reverentially and at the same time light heartedly in this way gradually restoring significance to the world By turns wry and ecstatic droll and elegiac quizzical and contemplative this is a major new work by one of our most singular and compelling poets Reading Writers Reading Danielle Schaub, 2006 I am a writer because I was a reader first Alison Gordon Nobody has ever written who never read Mavis Gallant Reading is a connection at once a way and a goal a liberating destiny Robert Kroetsch Over 160 Canadian writers in English and French write about their experiences of reading With striking photographs of each writer Reading Writers Reading offers a sublime voyage into the heart of literary creation Foreword by Russell Morton Brown The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry Benevolence Cynthia Holz, 2012-05 Cynthia Holz's first novel with Knopf Canada is a spellbinding story that offers an intimate look at family friendship and altruism and unrolls a cast of characters you can't help but root for even as you question some of the things they do Dr Ben Wasserman an organ transplant psychiatrist is having trouble assessing a would be kidney donor who may turn out to be a bona fide altruist But as his interest in the man grows so do his professional and emotional conflicts At the same time Ben's psychologist wife Renata Moon is struggling to treat a phobic client whose husband died in a train crash When the young woman reveals that she is pregnant Renata's disappointment in her own childless marriage is triggered anew Ben and Renata work hard all day then go home to squabble over the nightly take out It doesn't help to ease the rising tension in their marriage that Ben's widowed mother Molly has made her disapproval of her yet to be pregnant daughter in law well known Nor does it help when Molly takes in a boarder a man from her past whose secrets threaten to complicate the family dynamics even more Benevolence is intelligent amusing and deeply humane a novel that asks unsettling questions makes surprising connections and allows room for some unexpected magical solutions From the Hardcover edition The Malahat Review ,2008 Canadian Books in Print.

Borson,2008 Personal History is a book consisting of eight essays in the belles lettres tradition Of the work Borson writes From the inside each life seems an unbounded world from the outside a design can at times be seen Just as repetition and variation form the heart of poetry and song so too the seemingly singular events and questions that arise within a given life are echoed or answered recurring most often more than once in another time and place sometimes another key This idea underlies the eight pieces comprising this collection Two begin from the standpoint of reading and writing two from painting two from particular places or garden scapes and two from aspects of personal history and memory but all of these elements and standpoints revolve throughout interlinking the essays in an exploration of the adjacent regions of life and art Roo Borson was drawn to the fine arts and poetry in particular from a very early age and this prose companion rooted in the immediacy of experience and anti didactic in bent is dedicated to the idea that down the decades a book or an image however recorded might fall now and again into the right hands Prism International ,2009 Poets & Writers ,2005 Exile
