Longest Race:

The Longest Race Ed Ayres, 2013-08-20 It soon becomes clear that this book isn't just about an athletic race. It's also about the human race. Bloomberg Businessweek. Having run in more than six hundred races over the span of fifty-five years, Ed Ayres is a legendary distance runner, and this book is his urgent exploration of the connection between individual endurance and a sustainable society. The Longest Race begins in 2001 at the starting line of the JFK 50 Mile, the nation's oldest and largest ultramarathon, and like other such races, it's an epic test of human limits and aspiration. At age sixty, his sights set on breaking the age division record, Ayres embarks on a course over the rocky ridge of the Appalachian Trail along the headwind-buffed towpath of the Potomac River and past momentous Civil War sites such as Harpers Ferry and Antietam. But even as Ayres focuses on an endurance runner's familiar concerns—starting strong and setting the right pace, controlling his breathing, overcoming fatigue, and staying mindful of the course ahead—he finds himself as preoccupied with the future of our planet as with the finish line. A veteran journalist and environmental editor, Ayres reveals how the skills and mindset necessary to complete an ultramarathon are also essential for grappling anew with the imperative to endure, not only as individuals but as a society, and not just for fifty miles but over the real long haul in a unique meditation that ought to be required reading even for people who have never run a step. The Boston Globe. He seamlessly moves between discussing running to exploring larger life issues such as why we run, our impact on the environment, and the effects of the nation's declining physical fitness. Thought-provoking. Booklist. To read this book is to run alongside a seasoned athlete, a deep thinker, and a great storyteller. And Ayres doesn't disappoint. He is the best kind of running companion, generously doling out hilarious stories and hard-won insights into performance conditioning and the human condition. His lifetime of ultra-running and environmental writing drive his exploration of what keeps us running long distances and what it might take to keep the planet from being run into the ground. Nature Conservancy magazine. The Longest Race Kara Goucher, 2023-03-14. INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER. In one of the most important athlete memoirs of its generation, Kate Fagan, 1. New York Times bestselling author, Olympian Kara Goucher reveals her experience of living through and speaking out about one of the biggest scandals in running. Kara Goucher grew up with Olympic dreams. She excelled at running from a young age and was offered a Nike sponsorship deal when she graduated from college. Then in 2004, she was invited to join a secretive, lavishly funded new team dubbed the Nike Oregon Project. Coached by distance running legend Alberto Salazar, it seemed like the opportunity of a lifetime. Kara was soon winning a World Championship medal, going to the Olympics, and standing on the podium at the New York and Boston marathons, just like her coach had done. But behind the scenes, Salazar was hiding dark secrets. He pushed the limits of anti-doping rules and created what Kara experienced as a culture of abuse, the extent of which she reveals in her book for the first time. Meanwhile, Nike stood by Alberto for years and proved itself capable of shockingly misogynistic corporate practices. The Longest Race is an unforgettable story that is as interesting as it is

Long Run to Glory Stephen Lane, 2023-09-05 On the morning of August 5 1984 four of the greatest marathoners of all time lined up for one of the most important and long awaited races in history By then they had dominated their competition for at least five years upending a century's worth of preconceived notions of what marathoners could do By decade's end they had lowered the world record a total of 13 minutes won 27 major marathon titles and swept every Olympic and World Championship held in the 1980s And in their careers only once did all four American Joan Benoit Norwegians Grete Waitz and Ingrid Kristiansen and Portugal's Rosa Mota square off in the same race at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics in the first ever Women's Olympic Marathon Such was their talent that Benoit the world record holder entered the race as the underdog She'd had knee surgery in April and no one least of all Benoit herself was certain she could hold up for 26 miles against her three rivals Waitz the former world record holder was the favorite she had destroyed the field at the 1983 World Championships and had never lost a marathon she had finished Kristiansen who had beaten Waitz twice in the summer of 1984 albeit at shorter distances was considered the fastest woman in the race she held world records at 5 000m and 10 000m and would break Benoit s marathon record in 1985 Mota had beaten Kristiansen at the 1982 European marathon championships and was already earning a reputation for raising her level in the biggest races This is their story and the story of the first women s Olympic Marathon
