City Zlatan Krajina,2013-11-26 This book is an interdisciplinary empirical investigation of how people interact with public screens in their daily lives In more and more surprising locations screens of various kinds appear within the sightlines of passers by in contemporary cities Outdoor advertisers target audiences which are increasingly mobile public art uses screens to interrogate urban change while postmodern architecture finds electronic imagery a suitable tool of expression Traditionally urban sociology research has assumed that people seek to filter urban stimuli but recent accounts of public screens suggest producers design and position display interfaces site specifically so as to engage with those moving past This study offers insight both into the dynamics of actual encounters and into the long term process of how people learn to live with repeated invitations to consume media in public spaces The book includes four cases street advertising underground transport advertising and installation art in London UK and media fa ade architecture in Zadar Croatia Krajina shows that maintaining familiarity with everyday surroundings in media cities that change beyond citizens control is a temporary achievement and a recursive struggle Finalist for the Jane Jacobs Urban Communication Foundation book award 2014

and Beyond offers a deep dive into the blues venues and performers in the city from the 1940s through the 1990s. Interviews in this volume bring the reader behind the scenes of the daily and performing lives of working musicians, songwriters, and producers. The interviewers capture their voices, many sadly deceased, and reveal the changes in styles, the connections between performers, and the evolution of New York blues. New York City Blues is an oral history conveyed through the words of the performers themselves and through the photographs of Robert Schaffer, supplemented by the input of Val Wilmer, Paul Harris, and Richard Tapp. The book also features the work of award-winning author and blues scholar John Broven. Along with writing a history of New York blues for the introduction, Broven contributes interviews with Rose Marie McCoy, Doc Pomus, Billy Butler, and Billy Bland. Some of the artists interviewed by Larry Simon include Paul Oscher, John Hammond Jr., Rosco Gordon, Larry Dale, Bob Gaddy, Wild Jimmy Spruill, and Bobby Robinson. Also featured are over 160 photographs, including those by respected photographers Anton Mikofsky, Wilmer, and Harris, that provide a vivid visual history of the music and the times from Harlem to Greenwich Village and neighboring areas. New York City Blues delivers a strong sense of the major personalities and places, such as Harlem's Apollo Theatre, the history, and an in-depth introduction to the rich variety of sounds and styles that made up the often overlooked New York City blues scene.

A View from the Street/River City Policing S. Henry Knocker, 2015-04-16. The story of a kid from humble beginnings who overcame the challenges of growing up on the wrong side of the tracks to becoming a police officer. A View from the Street/River City Policing narrates the life story of S. Henry Knocker. This memoir delves into some of Knocker's early experiences before making the choice to dedicate his life to the cause of policing. He discusses his life as a child, as a young man coming to grips with a learning disability, and as a soldier. A View from the Street/River City Policing also shares what it was like to be a police officer for thirty years. It includes an array of anecdotes, some humorous and some tragic, about the people he encountered while he was doing his job. Knocker provides a broad view of several areas of police interactions with criminals and the courts, as well as offers political commentaries on subjects such as the root causes of racial tension and its effects on policing. A View from the Street/River City Policing offers insight into the life and times of one man who made policing a career.
