Johnson, 2015-11-16 Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage examines key developments in the field of the Australian postcolonial historical novel from 1989 to the present In parallel with this analysis A Frances Johnson undertakes a unique study of in kind creativity reflecting on how her own nascent historical fiction has been critically and imaginatively shaped and inspired by seminal experiments in the genre by writers as diverse as Kate Grenville Mudrooroo Kim Scott Peter Carey Richard Flanagan and Rohan Wilson Mapping the postcolonial novel against the impact of postcolonial cultural theory and Australian writers intermittent embrace of literary postmodernism this survey is also read against the post millennial history and culture wars which saw politicizations of national debates around history and fierce contestation over the ways stories of Australian pasts have been written The Best Australian Stories 2009 (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition), Lost Causes Bradley R. Clampitt, 2022-06 This groundbreaking analysis of Confederate demobilization examines the state of mind of Confederate soldiers in the immediate aftermath of war Having survived severe psychological as well as physical trauma they now faced the unknown as they headed back home in defeat Lost Causes analyzes the interlude between soldier and veteran suggesting that defeat and demobilization actually reinforced Confederate identity as well as public memory of the war and southern resistance to African American civil rights Intense material shortages and images of the war's devastation confronted the defeated soldiers turned veterans as they returned home to a revolutionized society Their thoughts upon homecoming turned to immediate economic survival a radically altered relationship with freedpeople and life under Yankee rule all against the backdrop of fearful uncertainty Bradley R Clampitt argues that the experiences of returning soldiers helped establish the ideological underpinnings of the Lost Cause and create an identity based upon shared suffering and sacrifice a pervasive commitment to white supremacy and an aversion to Federal rule and all things northern As Lost Causes reveals most

Down in the City Elizabeth Harrower, 2013-10-23 Esther Prescott has seen little of life outside her wealthy family's Rose Bay mansion until flashy Stan Peterson comes roaring up the drive in his huge American car and barges into her life. Within a fortnight they are living in his Kings Cross flat. Moody and erratic, proud of his well-bred wife yet bitterly resentful of her privilege, Stan is involved with his former girlfriend and a series of shady business deals. Esther, innocent and desperate to please him, must endure his controlling ways. This story of a troubled and obsessive marriage set against the backdrop of postwar Sydney is devastating. First published in 1957, Down in the City announced Elizabeth Harrower as a major Australian writer. Elizabeth Harrower was born in Sydney in 1928 and moved to London in 1951. She travelled extensively and began to write fiction. Her first novel Down in the City was published in 1957 and was followed by The Long Prospect a year later. In 1959 she returned to Sydney where she began working for the ABC and as a book reviewer for the Sydney Morning Herald. In 1960 she published The Catherine Wheel, the story of an Australian law student in London, her only novel not set in Sydney. The Watch Tower appeared in 1966. No further novels were published until May 2014 when Harrower's lost novel In Certain Circles was released. Her work is austere, intelligent, ruthless in its perceptions about men and women. She was admired by many of her contemporaries including Patrick White and Christina Stead and is without doubt among the most important writers of the postwar period in Australia. Elizabeth Harrower died in Sydney on 7 July 2020 at the age of ninety-two. Down in the City marked the arrival of one of the sharpest authors of psychological fiction in Australian literature. Many of the things that happen in the novel are unpleasant but are rendered with such intensity and psychological insight that the experience of reading about them is thrilling. Australian a triumph from Text's project to recover forgotten Australian literature. Doused in melancholy and written from an accessible yet unnerving third person perspective, Harrower's debut is a light read with weighty resonance. Readings Bookshop

Jimmy Sharman's Boxers Stephen McGrath, 2023-10-04 Jimmy Sharman is a conundrum. Raised in a large poor Catholic family, becoming a tent boxer at age eleven. He blinds another boxer and is racked by guilt for the rest of his life yet develops an extremely profitable and popular showground fixture. We learn about Sharman's boxing tent, spruiking his unconventional business habits, his furious temper, his leadership and diplomacy. Sharman was twenty-seven and medically fit when the war started. We learn the real-life stories of several indigenous boxers who were openly defiant against the intense racism they encountered. We meet clumsy Billy Grimes, the flat-foot kid who went on to win several Australian titles. We see an unlikely friendship develop between Rud Kee, a Chinese boxer, and Sharman. As losses at Gallipoli and the Western Front grow, townspeople begin to question why a troupe of young men is fighting for profit while others are dying. Soon there are few men left. Sharman struggles to find challengers, recruitment propaganda, and white feather campaigns intensify. The conscription plebiscites bitterly divide Australia. Then great personal tragedy visits Archie and the troupe. This story is the result of a remarkable new discovery in Australian history, a true story about how Jimmy
